From Many . . .

School ended yesterday, and here I am, walking along the shore of Huntington Beach. I think back to a day nine months ago and the panic I felt when my locker wouldn't open — the big hug that I gave to all my friends whom I hadn't seen for at least two days — the brand new books I had to buy (you should see what they look like now!) — and all the excitement of the first day of school. I had made it into the Drill Team. I was elected for the office of Junior Class Secretary. And I was to have the lead part in the school play. Each group that I was involved in was made up of other kids just like me — yet at the same time totally different from me. I recall that often I had found myself feeling insignificant to do my job alone — but looking out towards the ocean, I am reminded of something that I read in my church bulletin: "When the tide is out, you see little pools of water on the beach, scattered here and there over the sand. When the tide comes in, the places are still there, but so blended with the overflowing fullness that no one perceives them. When there is overflowing fullness of Christ, there will be Christian unity!"

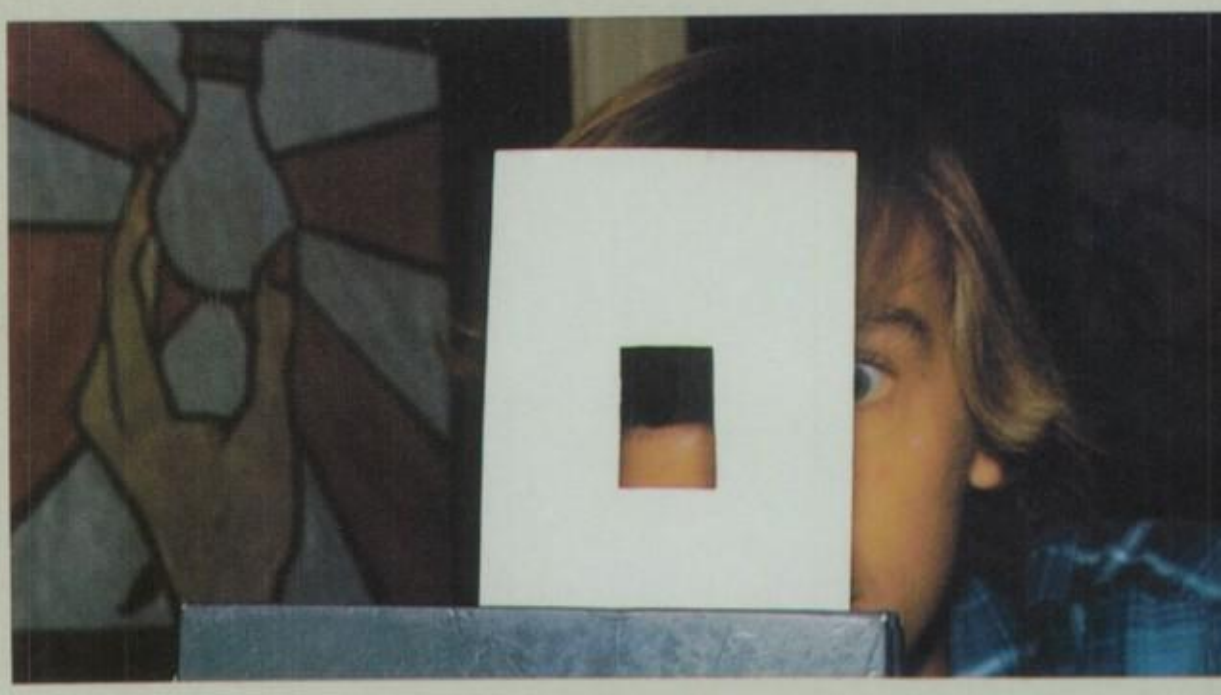
. . . One

Whenever I started feeling like just a "little pool of water", I remembered that I had been joined together with my classmates by Christ. Together we were able to allow God to take our MANY personalities and unify us into ONE team that would glorify Him.

I slowly walk up to my car. Another year at WCHS is over. I can see the tide rolling out as I leave the parking lot, but I know that soon it will be rolling in . . . once again.

During a lesson on sewing, Lori Swift pauses to listen for further instructions from Home Ec teacher Mrs. Opfer. 2. In addition to teaching U.S. history Mr. Burns teaches sophomore Bible. 3. During a timed typing test, students diligently strive to perform with their best speed and accuracy. 4. Many students, like Scott West, are happy when each day comes to an end and the homework load is not too heavy. 5. Brad Fries peers through a viewfinder in order to concentrate solely on the object which he is drawing. 6. Todd Montgomery develops coordination through jumping rope. 7. Sophomore, Liza Hernandez learns to take seriously the study of the Word of God.



Academics

A lot of teachers, with a lot of books; what would we do without these Academic Cooks? Just as many foods cannot be eaten until they are properly prepared and seasoned, it is the same way with the learning process. Unless a lesson is planned and worked on by a qualified person and then presented in an interesting way, the student might go away feeling hungry for knowledge. Teachers invited special guest speakers to their classes, ordered quality slide shows and films, spent hours thinking up projects, (only to have students complain about them) and stayed after school to help those who needed it.

On the other hand, teachers could pour out all their effort into preparing something to teach their students, but if the students didn't "eat" (or apply themselves to their studies) they would not be making the most of each class period. Many teachers commented on the way their students settled down and got to work at the beginning of each class period. Many teachers became not only teachers, but good friends as well. They blended in to be an important part of the Many that made up the One Whittier Christian High School and at least one day of the year, each student was able to leave school with books under his arms and a smile on his face.

In Dedication To . . .

Mr. Melvin Burns

Mr. Burns Cares!

"Mr. Burns is a caring and concerned teacher."

"He sacrificed his own time to help out the school by doing things like taking tickets at the football games and sponsoring the Junior class."

"He supports the otherwise 'unsupported' girls' sports."

"He dedicated a lot of time in helping plan and prepare the Junior-Senior Banquet. He even got an ulcer over last year's JS."

"Mr. Burns will even chase bike thieves. During summer school, we (his Junior History class) watched Steve Irwin's bicycle being stolen. Mr. Burns ran out the door and down the street trying to overtake the thieves. He then called the police and was very involved in the rescue of the bike!"

"He is patient with his students."

"He will always take the time to pray for us when we have problems."

Because of all he has contributed to Whittier Christian, we would like to dedicate the 1981 Trumpet to Mr. Melvin Burns.

1. During a Bible exam, Mr. Burns checks the progress of his students. 2. Mr. Burns is a loyal backer of Herald teams. 3. In a U.S. History class, Mr. Burns makes the subject come alive. 4. Mr. Burns, with his wife Lynette and daughter Beth Ann, attends a faculty get together. 5. Mr. Burns takes a breather between classes.

Courageous Administrators

1. Mr. Robert McIlhenny, Director of Teacher Development and Curriculum. 2. Mr. Mark Metzger, Principal. 3. Mr. Frank Mercer, Principal. 4. Mr. Gary Pate, Academic Counselor. 5. Mrs. Jan Mustin, Guidance Counselor. 6. Mr. Bill Cuccia, Boy's Counselor. 7. Miss Juanita Fogelstrom, Girl's Counselor. 8. Mr. Tom Caffrey, Athletic Director.

Could you handle a job working as an administrator? Eight courageous staff members took on a certain task in order to make every day at Whittier Christian High beautiful!

Principal Frank Mercer had the responsibility not only of running the school, but also of making sure that each student lived for Jesus Christ. His goal for each student was for them "to be conformed to the image of Christ."

On the Grovedale campus, Principal Mark Metzger had a servant's heart and was always willing to help the students in any way he could.

Mr. Bob McIlhenny, otherwise known as Mr. Mac, was the Director of Teacher Development and Curriculum. He observed each teacher at least once during the year and evaluated his teaching.

Mrs. Jan Mustin, the Guidance Counselor, worked toward giving the best advise and counsel possible. She strived to send each senior off into the world with a goal in life.

Mr. Gary Pate was the Academic Counselor. He scheduled classes for each one of the students. This was quite a job, especially when so many people wanted to change their schedules!

Two other people helped with counseling, Mr. Bill Cuccia and Miss Juanita Fogelstrom. They worked with the students on the Maybrook campus.

Mr. Tom Caffrey, the Athletic Director, coached a great football team and was concerned with the lives of each individual player, making sure they gave God the glory.

Behind The Scenes

Three new faces could be seen working hard and helping on the staff. One of these new additions was Miss Debbie Long. She helped out on the Maybrook Campus with mailings, machines, and audio visual equipment. Mrs. Lois Mack was also new and worked in the Guidance Office on the Grovedale Campus. The third new member was Dean Geib. He is an alumnus of WC and came to assume the job of head janitor for the Maybrook Campus.

These new faces, along with the old, made MANY, who joined to form ONE hardworking unit. To help them in doing their job, they received some new equipment, such as: typewriters, lawnmowers, an addressing machine, and a new copyer. All of their behind-the-scene work was deeply appreciated.

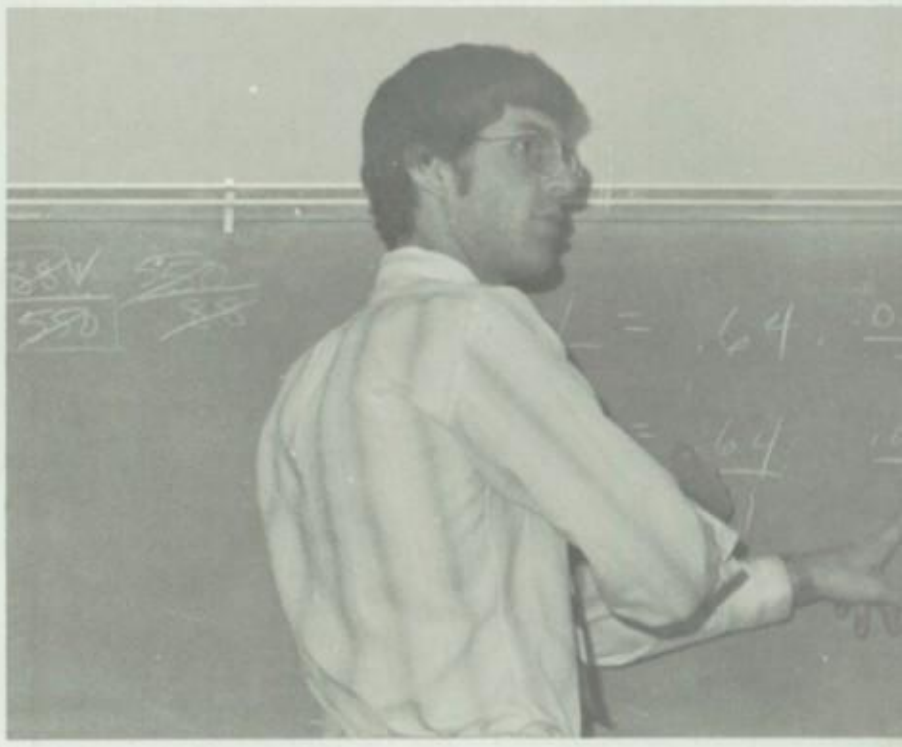
GEOMETRY



Battle For The Mind

As it is every year, students enrolled in math classes treaded sadly through the subject, which is so patiently taught by the math teachers. However, the teachers received a new weapon in their fight to let students know that math is fun. They used the Rockwell 850 computers in the advanced Algebra classes at Maybrook. Miss Teresa Turner, the Math 4 and Algebra 2 teacher, said, "We are very pleased to have them and to expand the use of computers over the next years." The department also received new Algebra 1 & 2 books from Harcourt Brace Jovanovich. They expanded the math department by adding a Calculus class taught by Mr. Stephen Endemano. Five students were enrolled in it. The Math 4 class was the largest one since Miss Turner has been here.

Whip It Up And Stitch It Good

Because Home Ec was an elective offered to girls only, they concentrated on sewing and cooking. In Home Ec 1 classes, girls made two garments first semester and learned the fundamentals of cooking second semester. Building on what they had learned in Home Ec 1, the girls in Home Ec 2 learned how to tailor their clothes and did some cultural cooking. The girls were tested on the food groups and how to lay a simple pattern. Some child care was included in the Home Ec classes.

Mrs. Debbie Opfer felt that this class helped her girls realize that they must have an attitude to serve God in everything that they do.

Spirit Of Competition

Physical Education was an important ingredient in each student's schedule because it released the student from the monotony of five academic classes. Through the fun of playing different sports throughout the year, the students learned the importance of physical fitness and the spirit of competition.

These qualities were brought about through the boys' intramural football games and the girls' powderpuff games. Period five won the boys' intramural football games; period seven came in second. It was the classes that competed in the girls' powderpuff football games. The decisive game was played during a halftime at St. Paul stadium. Seniors came out on top as they battled against the sophomores.

"Busy" and "Hardworking" are words that described the Speech Class. When most people think of Speech they don't realize how much work was required in the class! Some of their goals were to practice the communication process-both in speaking and listening. Through this the students gained an increased sense of self-confidence and an awareness of how communication effects them.

They also worked on many types of speeches. Some of these were interviewing, discussion, radio with advertising, 5-minute news casts, radio drama, and 20-minute radio programs. Towards the end of the year, the class worked on expository speeches, persuasive speeches, and oral interpretations. The students in speech class were able to compete or become involved in the Lion's Club speech tournaments throughout the year.

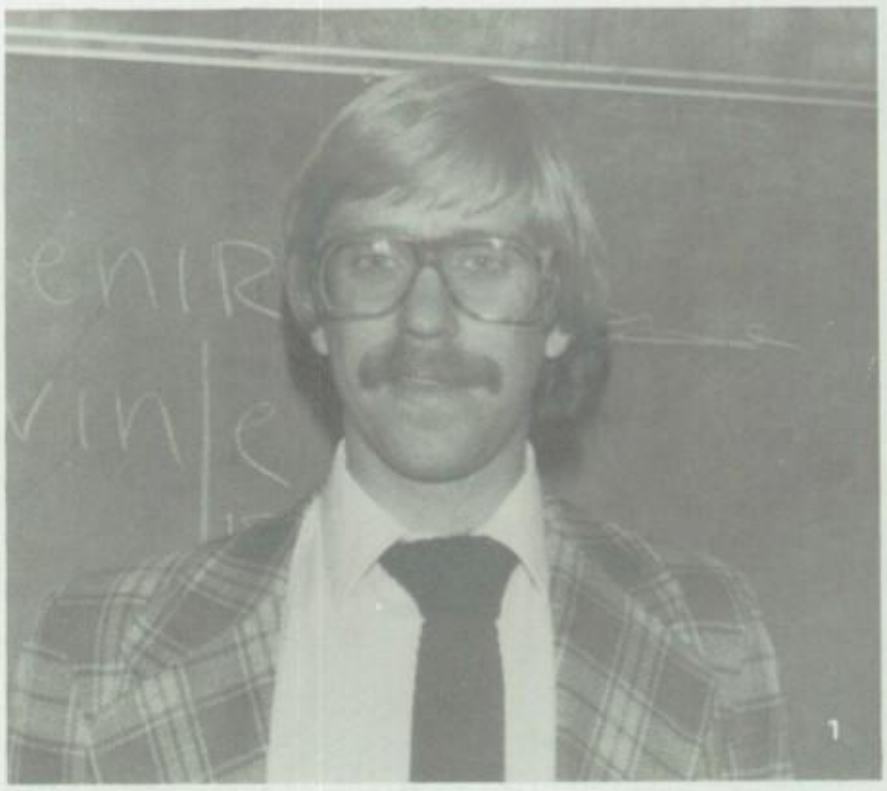
Drama students studied acting as an art. Miss Marilyn Zimmers, drama teacher, taught two levels of art during one period. She included study of the history of art along with exercises in relaxation and muscle control. Students learned to respect drama as an art rather than merely comical skits. They performed and directed clippings from several plays.

Booster club members were entertained at meetings by performances including a scene from "The Miracle Worker" as a preview to the play which they put on first semester.

In February, the drama class hosted a drama tournament for Christian schools. At the tournament, drama teachers from the various schools, led sessions on improving acting skills. When asked if she had a comment to make about her drama students, Miss Marilyn Zimmers said, "They're all wonderful!"



Sprechen Español? Oui Oui

The Spanish teachers, Mr. Mark Schrock, Mrs. Margie Moen, and Miss Beverly Dobrenen strove to improve the students' vocabulary and grammar. Spanish is a second language in Southern California. Perhaps this attributes to the large number of students who take Spanish.

Mrs. Beth Day familiarized students with the language and culture of France. Her classes strived for a better understanding of the French language and learned the basics on how to speak, read, and write simple French. Mrs. Day provided film strips, dialogues and stories so her students could further acquaint themselves with the language. French tapes were also played in class for the purpose of putting into practice what the students were learning.

Through his unique personality, Mr. Ed Goossen brought to life the German culture within the confining walls of his room. He taught the students how the German people live and about the cities they live in. Of course there was the exciting semester of grammar . . . but how else can students learn to read and write without the basics? Their goal was to be able to read and especially speak German by the end of the year.

Making History!

In September of 1980, a force of history teachers arrived on the campus of Whittier Christian High School. They were fully equipped with all the books, maps, and tests needed to successfully perform the duty of sharing their knowledge with the various students whom they discovered sitting at desks in their classrooms. Mr. Robert McIlhenny, the wellknown head of the group, declared, "The History Department of WCHS is committed to making the past come alive. Without a doubt the lessons of history prove that the only way that man will learn to live in peace is by knowing His Creator." Every available resource was used to show this. Then, by the end of June, 1981, it all became history. The teachers' mission of making the uninformed students aware of the ways of the past was completed.

Pig Ears, And Frog Legs

For some there's nothing more fun than cutting up and experimenting with dead pigs and frogs. Miss Ardelle Costley and Mr. Noel Gardner directed these activities in their biology classes. During the course of the year the students disected small animals such as pigs and frogs, studied slides through microscopes and learned straight from their biology books.

In his first year at Whittier Christian, Mr. Noel Gardner contributed to the science department by teaching three biology classes.

In Miss Costley's chemistry class the students worked with different chemicals mixing them to discover how they reacted to each other.

Mr. Robert Bruce, another science teacher, taught one class of physics and a new class of electronics. The electronics class received all new equipment in order for the students to learn the basic skills of electronics.

Real Truth Leads To Changed Lives

The Bible Department's goals of communicating the Bible's teachings and background in order to understand better the way we should live, is summed up in Mr. Stephen Endemano's statement, "Real truth that is learned will lead to changed lives."

Mr. Gary Bowman, Mr. Mel Burns, Mr. Tom Caffrey, Mr. Leon Davis, Mr. Frank Mercer, Mr. Mervin Moothart, and Mr. Phil Underwood made up the Bible Department. Their main goal was to help the students know God more personally, so that their lives in every aspect would reflect Jesus Christ. Each teacher wanted to be used by the Lord to touch the lives of each of his students and to help them live more efficient Christian lives.

None Of Your Business

But to the students in the business classes it was . . . every day. Added to the business department was Mr. Bob Brown's new Business Law class. The class consisted of "the laws of society, the effects they have on us as teenagers, the protection they give us as consumers, and the way they keep us out of legal problems." Mr. Brown also taught one class of accounting, in which the students learned how to keep the financial records of merchandising business. They worked as employed accountants for Quadrasonics Retail Stereo.

In her first year teaching at the Grovedale campus, Miss Bryana Frembling taught one class of Shorthand, Typing 2, General Business, and three classes of Typing I. Her General Business class worked with Junior Achievement, having experience running a make believe business. They set up the company, sold stocks, manufactured products, and then dissolved the company.

Mrs. Debbie Opfer was another typing teacher. She taught two classes of Typing I. This was her first year of teaching a freshman typing class. For the first semester her students learned the keyboard, and during the second semester, they worked on office skills, speed and accuracy. These business classes helped prepare the students for future careers in the business world.

New Outlook On Life

I CAN! These four letters were sort of a motto for the Richer Life classes. Taught by Mr. Cuccia, Mr. Dauber, Mr. Herron, and Mr. Underwood, the objective of the classes were to give students a new outlook on life and to help the students create a better self-image of themselves. According to Mr. Herron, the section on controlling one's attitude and habits and learning how to develop a positive attitude was "the most important section." A few of the other objectives of this semester course were: that students learn the importance of setting goals for themselves and the realization that nothing comes for free. A person must work at something to get anywhere in life.

Foundations For Learning was a model setting for classes that Freshmen would have the next three years of high school. Its ultimate objective was to give the students an opportunity to be a part of an ideal academic class. It was also designed to give the student some skills to improve his grades and learning abilities. Some of these skills were: 1) Learning to listen effectively. 2) Developing study methods and study time. 3) Learning to use correct outlines and summaries. 4) Improving word knowledge. 5) Writing better term papers. 6) Learning how to take objective and subjective tests. The class covered a variety of areas and helped the students out greatly.

Denise Nair's attention is drawn to another art student's project. 7. Art teachers: Miss Debbie Danielson, Miss Marie Dalton, Miss Joan Ogg.

In his first year at WCHS, Mr. Morris Barcroft taught photography and drafting. Freshmen photography students met on the Grovedale campus first period to use the photo lab and equipment. According to Mr. Barcroft, photography is an exciting hobby; there are many career possibilities for photographers.

In addition to teaching four photography classes, Mr. Barcroft taught two drafting classes at Maybrook. Students tackled the problems of learning to work with the metric system. He was also faced with the problem of knowing the best way to present the metric system in an understandable way. Mr. Barcroft enjoys teaching at WC and he said, "I feel the closeness and unity of the staff".

Creativity

Miss Joan Ogg was excited to have an art department with the addition of two art teachers: Miss Debbie Danielson and Miss Marie Dalton, who taught classes on the freshmen campus. Miss Dalton appreciated "how quickly the students took out their materials and began working" in craft classes. Some of the projects included macrame and decoupage.

Drawing on the Right Side of the Brain by Betty Edwards, was the resource book used by Miss Ogg and Miss Danielson to teach Art 1 classes. "Students are taught in school, through academics, to use the left side of the brain. In the art classes we want to teach them, through drawing exercises, how to use the creative side of their brain. We want them to learn to observe," stated Art 1 teacher, Miss Danielson.

Art 3 & 4 classes met requests for painting and calligraphy. One of their projects was to repaint the Whittier Christian sign on the Maybrook campus. Students also painted props for the school plays and in their spare time, they did some artwork for the teachers. At the end of each semester, the students in Art 3 & 4 turned in a portfolio of their work which was taken to Otis Art Institute to be displayed. Miss Ogg believes "We all have creativity and everyone has talent in different ways."

Grammar Galore

As students, you need to know about the teachers who taught you the subject of English. They felt that God told them to go into the English field. At Maybrook, the teachers were Dalton, Domene, and Searcy who were dedicated to teaching the freshmen correct grammar.

On the Grovedale campus, teachers Bowman, Esbenshade, Gardner, Landfear, McIlhenny, and Zimmers went forward in their goals to teach literature and grammar to the upperclassmen.

New to the English department, was Mr. Doug Domene, Miss Linda Esbenshade, Mr. Gary Bowman and Mr. Noel Gardner. Also two teachers had new locations, Miss Marie Dalton was located at the freshman campus and Miss Marilyn Zimmers was at the Grovedale campus.

These nine English teachers who planted knowledge of the English language into the minds of students, hope that the students will use it to serve God.

1. Joan Margolis staples her English report together. 2. Miss Landfear reads correct grammar to her students. 3. Drill Team Strives For Perfection Drill Team entertained spectators at the football and basketball games with great half-time shows. Their sharpness and precision showed up with every one of their performances. Drill Team had fun during the Halloween half-time show when they dressed up in different costumes, and were allowed to run or ride bikes to their next formation without organization as the drill teamers usually do. Their precision was carried through to the Tustin Tiller Days Parade when the Drill Team placed first of all competitors in their division. Drill Team was under the leadership of Miss Linda Esbenshade. This was Miss Esbenshade's first year as Drill Team advisor along with teaching English 2 and 4 on the Grovedale campus. Under her leadership the Drill Team worked hard, and strived for unity.

Fabulous Flags Fascinate Friends

"The 1980-81 year was the best of the five years of tall flags" stated tall flag sponsor Miss Teresa Turner. "The team was young, and is expected to come back next year and do even better." The team's goal was to perform well at every event. One of the highlights was The Lester Oaks Riverside Parade, where they scored 39 out of a possible 40 points. The tall flag squad went to many places. One of them was camp this summer at Cal State Long Beach for training. They used flags in stand routines which added to a great year.

Once again, the band won awards. Led by drum major Jeff Morgan and directed by Mr. Steve Opfer, the 56 member Herald Marching band marched in the southern California area. The band took third place in the Tustin Tillers Day Parade, and first place in the Montebello Royale Parade. At the Lester Oaks Memorial Band Review in Riverside, the band received a first place. At the Whittier College Homecoming Parade, the band took third place out of the bands there which included other high schools from the Whittier area.

The band was involved in many other events such as: the pre-game "High School Band Night" at Dodgers Stadium and marching at Disneyland. The band was also involved in the ACSI Senior High School Band Festival. Some of the band members formed a pep band for the varsity basketball team.

The year was capped by the band concerts the Christmas Concert held at 1st Evangelical Free Church and the Spring Concert held at the La Mirada Civic Theatre.

Towering high above the parking lot of the Whittwood Shopping Center was a sign proclaiming the entertainment for the evening—The Whittier Christian High School Choir. It was a crisp winter evening, but they were given a warm reception from the many Christmas shoppers.

Caroling at Whittwood was only one of the many things that fifth period choir was involved in. Much of their time was spent working on the extremely difficult songs for the ACSI musicale. Combined with Rejoice, choir formed the renowned Herald Chorale. They always performed as a single unit as the six boys were slightly outnumbered by the girls.

They presented two main programs, "Worthy is the Lamb", for the Christmas concert, and "Goin' Home" for the Spring concert. "Goin' Home" was a musical that had to do with heaven. Mrs. Smith and the choir were really excited about that one!

After much deliberation, "Teen Inspiration" was adopted by the 38 members of the freshman choir as their official name. They performed along with the other musical groups for a "family and friends" concert, the Christmas concert, and for many other performances. Their patriotic spirit shone through as they concentrated on songs from the program, "I Love America". They emphasized the fact that, along with living in this great land, their true happiness came from knowing Christ as Lord and Savior.

Donned in lovely beige dresses and powder blue tuxes, "Teen Inspiration" impressed everyone with their amazing talent for people so young in the field of choir singing and choreography.

Rejoice!

Rejoice, following in the footsteps of last year's Praise Song, continued to have the responsibility of performing at various churches in the area on Sunday nights. Besides this important ministry, they also involved themselves in singing for Booster Club meetings, caroling at the Antique Guild in Santa Ana, and participating in the yearly concerts. A retreat to Palm Springs, where they spent five hours making a tape, was one of the highlights of the year. Along with making the tape, and singing at the Palm Springs Baptist Church, they enjoyed fun times of shopping, eating, riding the tram, and just growing closer to each other.

Two groups, mixed ensemble and girls' ensemble, who each had a separate class period to practice, made up the 36 members of Rejoice. At their first performance of the school year, which was held at Community Grace Brethren for their families and friends, Mrs. Phyllis Smith, the choir director, said, "We're going to work hard for sound and performance, but our number one goal is to learn how to put Jesus Christ into every day and everything—to take the words of our songs into life with us."

It's One O'Clock

It's one o'clock in the morning and we're finished with our first yearbook deadline . . . it's only a week late! We'll probably be finished within an hour or two or three or four . . . but it really doesn't matter since most of us will go home to stare at a textbook for a few hours until we feel sufficiently unprepared for exams tomorrow. Now don't get me wrong; a worknight is one of the highlights of being a part of the yearbook staff.

Jim is in the darkroom right now mourning over the five rolls of film that were ruined at a worknight prior to the original deadline last week. Andy just marched out of the room with his wine bottle full of developing chemicals, I think. Tina seems to be having problems getting her copy written. Maybe it's because she keeps munching on pizza or complaining that her pen has run out of ink (it probably dried up while she was picking sausages off the pizza). Diana and Lisa T. have been trying to identify I.D. pictures all night . . . guess it's pretty important to have the right name with the right picture. Lynne has already finished identifying hers. Really, she's done with all her work, but she's sticking around because she heard the party usually starts at one. It's just about to begin, I think; or has it begun? I really can't tell!! No wait; it has!! Bouncing, laughing and complaining that there is no way she can possibly write copy, Karen A. has just spilled ink all over Karen G.'s artwork. Karen G. just let out a yell which is piercing the chaotic confusion! Karlyn is oblivious to the confusion in the room. She is quietly sitting in her special place on the floor meditating on theme copy which she can write in no other position. Nancy's quiet working has just been interrupted by Andy who has returned to find out her final decision about rule lines. Nancy is no longer quietly working. Andy is getting riled. Suddenly, everyone is directing attention to the corner table. Guess you can't go through a whole year without any arguments. Dave just got in on the argument by flashing the strobe in their faces. He seems to have a fascination for flashing lights. Jay is complaining that he can't take any pictures because his camera is still being repaired!! If we're lucky, he'll get it back by May. Dan and Lisa M. Have been wondering when they will be able to get the pictures for their layouts so that they can crop them. Jim just walked in. "Where are the pictures we ordered last week, Jim?" "Well, uh, I was mugged by a Photo Assignment Sheet thief." I wonder how long Dan and Lisa will remain quietly frustrated. There's Greg. Seems like we see him an awful lot this year, even though he deserted us to be in choir. Mark and Michelle have dedicated their lives to sitting behind typewriters and typing the staff's copy in its final form. Mark is determined to remain true to tradition and be the last to leave tonight (oops!) this morning. Some of us worry ourselves sick about these deadlines which we seem to be missing, but not Mitch; he never worries and has plenty of faith that things will work out. Lori just giggles about it, and giggles, and giggles. Where's Debbie (Miss Danielson) in all this mess? Oh, there she is, stapling trash to the bulletin board. This must be one of her sane moments!! I wonder if we'll ever get this yearbook ZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZ P.S. Before Kevin fell asleep, some one heard him mumble under his breath, "I can hardly wait until this yearbook is finished!!"

Student Council

With fourteen student leaders and Advisor Gary Pate, the Student Council successfully provided spiritual leadership and exciting activities for the student body. Such activities included the Big-Little Sister Party, Homecoming, Christmas Party, Spring Party, and an all-school picnic.

A big project the Student Council accomplished was a complete overhauling and rewriting of the ASB Constitution. Their goal in doing this was to contribute to a more effective organization for next year's council. They capitalized on strengths and eliminated unnecessary frills in the constitution. Working together and becoming a closely knit unit was not always easy but by adopting a servant's heart of submission, God used the Student Council effectively.

Student Life

Homework, studying, and tests — they definitely are a big part of school, but what would we have done without things such as Spirit Week, Homecoming, the Christmas Party, and the Sadie Hawkins? All of these were times for growing closer to one another, times for letting go and having fun and just being ourselves. We couldn't all get straight "A's, but we all displayed some unique qualities that added to each other's lives.

We wore cowboy hats and hung up "Blast Brethren" posters. We acted in the school play and sang in the Christmas concert. We worked at McDonald's every day after school, yet still found a way to ask that special girl to the class party. Some of us had artistic abilities. Others of us could write moving poetry. We could debate for hours over who should be the next President of the United States and then go to a game to cheer our teams on to victory. Some of us planned well, while others of us carried out those plans.

Without each other, we all would have failed. And without the One who made us all ONE, we would have been nothing. Spiritual Life Emphasis was held the first week of school. We were challenged to be totally committed to Christ. This set the framework for all the activities that followed and whether working or playing we tried to make our "student life" a Christ-centered life.

Once more the sun rises and shines on the Whittier Christian High School campus. We begin to see the wonders of the day . . . the array of tires around the flag pole, the rainbow of tables stretched across the covered walkway. All are signs of the "fads" that represent our school and our world.

As the day comes more clearly into view we travel to some of the many up-to-date homes of Whittier Christian girls where they "tumble out of bed and stumble to the kitchen, pour themselves a cup of ambition and yawn and stretch and try to come to life and realize there are people like themselves on the job from 8-3." They then go to their "spacey" closets and pull out their 4-inch Cherokees that are "more comfortable on than off." Not to mention the plaid, wool skirts and pastel sweaters. It promises to be "a good one".

Now, the boys. "Man, they need Vans!" which each morning they hop into; two feet at a time, no doubt. And the "Ocean Pacific Sunwear that they can star in!"

They then leave their houses with "the cool wind in their hair." They get "into the fast lane" so they can begin their day sooner!

Looking around, one may get the feeling of being in a zoo-in more ways than one. Take the parking lot for instance. We have Pintos, Mustangs, Rabbits, Skyhawks, Thunderbirds, Hornets, Skylarks, Cougars, "bugs", Colts, Jaguars, and last but far from least—Gremlins. Or, the biology department, with their frogs and worms . . . not to mention the animals in class.

Well, "blow me away, ya know?" Our campus is just like "oh, wow" "fer sures", it's "totally hot!" cuz "We Bad, We Bad!!"

Memories
As the clock's hands slowly move forward in time
Another moment is lost.
A moment that could have lasted forever
If only the hands of time would have stopped.
But time stops for no one
The happiest moment of your life is yet a memory
The times you laughed, joked, cried, and smiled
Once buried in time's graveyard,
Never to be dug up by the hands of man.

Quiet Time With God

Lord
I come to you in silent prayer to go over my thoughts
with you.

I feel so open with you. You're better than a close friend,
and comfort me more
than an earthly father.

You fill me up with so much Love
that I want to burst
and share it.

Lord
You come to me
in time of need you show me the way to go.

Lord
Our relationship is everlasting
and will continue forever more.

(Romans 8:28)
At times I feel I am fighting a war
I struggle and try to open the door
God's finger points just the opposite way
And I know His path leads to the light of day
Stubbornly I continue to have my way still It's always so hard to unknowingly trust His Will
The Bible says "All Things Work Together For Good"
I am so blind to the truth - my heart is like wood
Even though His Will may not seem right to me
He promises it is - only I must trust Him and see
It has worked every time, He hasn't failed me yet
Why do I run and hide and why do I fret?
God surely promises I'll come out a winner
Why do I doubt Him? I am a horrible sinner!
Yet He continues to look at me and smile
He doesn't give up - He is patient all the while Oh Lord I'll give anything to just be in Your Will Help me to have faith and make my heart still Teach me my lesson and let it sink in
Don't make me learn it over and over again
Pull me close to your side and make yourself so real
That my thoughts will be yours and your peace I will feel.

You want me to what?
Graduate?!?
You mean . . . I spent all this time,
And paid all this money, and
and, you're kicking me out!!?
No way, Jose!
I think if anyone gets booted,
the freshmen should.
The ol' seniority bit
The haven't devoted nearly as much time.
I spent hours pickling my brain for biology,
counting my toes for algebra, playing Andrew Jackson for history,
and Handle for choir.
What? I've earned it you say? Parole?
You mean, Everyone leaves after four years?
Oh- almost everyone.
(That must be where Miss Turner's family

Well . . I'll miss you.
Thank you, W.C.
Thank you, friend.

All Kinds Of Jobs!

There are an assortment of jobs that students were involved in. Jobs ranged from fast food places to restaurants, from department stores to expensive clothing stores. Most students worked because they had to have the money for special expenses, but some worked because they liked having a different environment and the extra cash.

1. Barrie Ponce works in the women's section at K-Mart. 2. April Fries is a happy hostess at Polly's Pies. 3. Patty Anderson works behind the scenes at Der Wienerschnitzel. 4. Michelle Dobrenin works as a sales person at Bullocks. 5. Nancy Yumiba makes a sale on towels.

Community Participation

"Meals on Wheels" is one of the many volunteer projects sponsored by the National Charity League. This project helps feed people who are not able to prepare their own food. Kathy Bihr was one of the students who delivered hot lunches with her mother on Saturday. Merry Eberly, a senior, was a candy striper, which is a volunteer job helping patients in hospitals. Iris Roldan who has also been a candy striper, worked last year at the Helen Evans Home for the retarded. She took 2nd place in the Soroptimist Youth Citizenship Award, because of her great involvment in the community. Judi Stellingwerf, another senior, took 1st place in the Soroptimist Youth Citizenship Award. Judi has in the past worked as a Library Aid, stuffed envelopes for the blind, and last year worked with exceptional children. These are just a few of the many students doing a great service in their community.

World News

The Hostages are freed . . . Death of a Beatle . . . The election of a new president . . . These are just a few of the top stories that broke this year. Indeed, the 52 American hostages were released after being held in captivity in Iran for over a year. On January 20, after much negotiating, the Iranian militants released the hostages. That same day, only minutes earlier, President Ronald Reagan was inagurated to office as 40th president. He won the vote by such a landslide margin, that former President Jimmy Carter conceded before the final vote was even tabulated. With Reagan came the lifting of the freeze on gasoline prices. Paying almost $1.50 a gallon became common with prices over $2.00 per gallon in some places. Although Reagan struggled for excellence, many were unsatisfied to a point of an attempted assasination on March 30, 1981 by John Hinckley of Colorado who tried to kill Reagan for the heart of actress Jodie Foster.

There was much talk on whether there really was a gas shortage, but one thing that surprised Americans was a shortage of peanut butter. With a small crop of peanuts, the prices of peanut butter doubled in a short amount of time.

One of the most shocking stories was that of the death of ex-Beatle John Lennon. He played an important part in the music history of the world and will be remembered always in the hearts of many. Another death that shocked many was the execution-murder of Wycliffe Bible Translator's Chet Bitterman. His death by Colombian militants was clearly unnecessary and became the subject of much talk among many Christians.

Las Vegas suffered many tragedies this past year in the way of fires. Four hotels were burned, the largest being the MGM Grand, and many people died after being trapped inside, unable to escape.

The Southland also suffered many fires last fall, causing a great deal of worry among many Southern California homeowners. In attempts to protect their homes, many people were seen atop the roofs of their homes watering them down with garden hoses.

Another cause for worry among Southern Californians, especially the skiers, was the extremely dry winter we Californians suffered. The lack of rain meant almost no snow in the mountains, and the hot weather made for some very slush skiing. Some record high temperatures were set, also. Whoever heard of 85o weather in December? LA had to settle for one not-so-white Christmas.

Some important birthdays also came around this past year. Disneyland celebrated its 25th birthday, and Los Angeles became 200 years old. A nice way to celebrate was the termination of manditory busing. After much argument and fighting in court the California Supreme Court upheld the anti-busing amendment, Prop. 1, which brought an end to forced busing.

With the new year came a very mild winter. 2. John Hinckley is forced to the ground after attempting to assasinate the president. 3. After a long delay, Skylab finally leaps spaceward. 4. 1980 gives the United States a new president and a new hope. 5. Peanut butter; worth its weight in gold? 6. Tragic MGM Grand Hotel fire. 7. America; are we militarily inferior?

SPIRITUAL EMPHASIS WEEK

Spiritual Emphasis Week proved to be an inspiration in the lives of many students here on Campus. Informative speakers presented subjects of great importance to daily lives thus forcing students to think and make definite decisions on how to start off the new school year.

Bob Cryder started the week talking about commitment. He followed, the second and third speaking about testing and obedience. Since the Bible was Cryder's main source of reference, Solomon, Jonah, and Gideon played important roles in his discussions.

Other strong speakers, adding new depth in the lives of many were Tom Mercer and Rob Troutloff. Rob gave a talk entitled, "Rock Talk", which introduced the importance of the type of music we listen to. He grasped eveyone's interest and attention, by playing secular music and explaining its hidden meaning. Rob had a sure effect on many of the listeners.

Music added life to the week. Students participated in group singing, led by Mr. Moothart, in addition to talented soloists, Terry Larson, Nanci Marquez, Mrs. Smith, Rob Mehl and Bob Ayala.

1. Rob Troutloff gives a "Rock Talk". 2. Bob Ayala gives a message in his songs. 3. Mr. Moothart leads the students in song, at the Whittier Area Baptist Fellowship.

Chapel

Each Tuesday, students were given the chance to worship God in chapel. Students were encouraged to think seriously about their relationships to Christ and where their lives were headed.

Several speakers from the area came to help the students. Mayland Freezand, of Whittier Hills Baptist Church spoke on the choice young people must make between following God's way and the ways of the world. In a film "Super Christian" the students were shown in a humorous way that God is not pleased with Christians who live one life on Sunday and another during the rest of the week.

Todd Morgan, Anna Mendoza, and Nanci Marquez are among the students who shared God's love through music in chapel.

1. Curtis Fritz, Student Body President, and Phil White, Chaplain, get the chapel started. 2. Mark Apsley and Phil Burrus play a duet for the student body. 3. A singing group from Biola shares Christ and their school. 4. Anna Mendoza sings to the student body.

I'm A Pepper

Pep Club members used bright red and yellow paint to letter "Fire Up" cards, which were used to promote spirit at games. At first the cards did not work because the cards were too flimsy, but with the use of cardboard, pepsters made them sturdier. These cards were one of many new ideas the club used. Another idea was megaphone pins which pep club members earned by promoting spirit. The pep club also had new shirts and pompons this year.

Pep club president, Renee Martin, and sponsor, Miss Marie Dalton, agreed that the goals of the club were to promote spirit at school, to help the cheerleaders, and to support all sports. They prepared treats for team members such as cookies, candy, and chips.

Searching For Snow

The snow came late to the mountains this year, but the Ski Club went in search of it early. The skiers followed their fearless leader, Mr. Doug Domene on two guests for bottomless powder. The first trip, to Snow Summit in Big Bear, allowed skiers to experience the ultimate in boiler plate ice. It was a blast!

On their second expedition, they listened to the alluring Mammoth Mountain. The trip began with complaints such as, "There is no snow." This, however, was a mere techniciality as snow was on the way. The skiing was excellent. On the trip home, the ski club set up camp in a small mission in Bishop, at the foot of the mountain, due to the fact that the bus broke down. The skiers were so tapped by their strenous guest, they had to miss an extra day of school. And for the ski club next year? . . . THE ALPS.

They Played Tuesday Nights

The 1980-81 Tennis Club was led by Mr. Bob Bruce. They played on Tuesdays at La Mirada Regional Park. Mr. Bruce has been in charge of tennis for the past three years. The Tennis Club is designed so that the people who are interested in tennis can have fun and improve their skills.

Checkmate

Chess club members challenged themselves twice a week with a game of chess. Everyone had a chance to play each other. There were six members, who were sponsored by Mr. Gary Hilderbrand. At the beginning of the year, the club only had one chess set, but with a little work from Mr. Hilderbrand they were able to obtain four more sets. Those involved had a really good time.

1. An exciting game of chess. 2. Bill Collier ... gets involved. 3. The center of attention. 4. Mr. Hilderbrand, the sponsor. 5. Kent Rylander shows total concentration.

Talented Tongues

People with talented tongues, the Speech Team, traveled throughout the Southern California area. The club has competed at many high schools and colleges. Some of their competitions were held at Dominquez High School in Paramount, Patrick Henry High in San Diego, California State Fullerton, Long Beach City College, and USC.

The difference between Speech Class and Club is that Speech Class teaches the fundamentals of speech. Those who wanted to participate in competitions joined the Speech Club.

Todd Morgan won first place in Progammed Reading which qualified him for State Championship.

The Players

1. Steve Martin, Margaret Hanson, Becky Reece, Chris McCarron, Todd Morgan, Dan Biering, Chris Eighme, Diana Driscoll. Picture shy: Anne Mendenhall, Kelly Mercer. 2. Miss Landfear gives important speech advice to Anne Mendenhall. 3. Tim Minear and Judi Stellingwerf practice their acting skills. 4. The Players consisted of actors and actresses who were striving to honor excellence onstage and behind the scenes activities. There were twelve continuing members: Jaletta Albright, Cherie Blake, Mark deRu, Tim Fedel, Robert Franklin, Teri Gemmil, Sherri Hoyt, Janet Leak, Tim Minear, Steve Palm, Scott Reuter, and Judi Stellingwerf. These people worked on two full-length play productions in the cast or crew, and were actively involved in drama. This club was sponsored by the English and Drama teacher Miss Marilyn Zimmers.

The California Scholarship Federation - better known as C.S.F. - is to honor those students who consistantly show a high grade point average in their "solid" classes.

The C.S.F.er's go on quite a few field trips. Some of the things they did, and some of the places they went, were very interesting. For instance: The John Paul Getty Museum, The Huntington Library, Disneyland, Christmas Caroling, and a weekend retreat in San Diego were just a few of the places.

C.S.F. officers were: Amy Carr, President; Lisa Wilson, Vice President; Michelle Coopy, Secretary; and Karen Gardea, Social Chairman. Mrs. Jan Mustin was the C.S.F. advisor.

"The Joy Of Christmas"

The Christmas Concert, held at the Evangelical Free Church in Fullerton, was a big success. The award-winning Herald Band, under the direction of Mr. Steve Opfer, began the program with several Christmas selections including a sing-along of "White Christmas".

Mr. Merv Moothart lead the congregation in singing several Christmas carols with Greg Curtis and Judy True accompanying on the piano and organ.

Mrs. Phyllis Smith directed Teen Inspiration in a salute to the U.S.A. through song. Also under Mrs. Smith's direction, Rejoice and the Herald Chorale shared the Christmas story through musical presentation.

International Spring Party

"International", a great theme for a new and different Spring Party. It was held in the First Methodist Church of Whittier, on March 7, 1981. The couples were encouraged to dress for the occasion in different outfits of other nations. The menu consisted of various exotic foods such as "Enchaladas de Ensenada, Deutchland Potato Salad, and Brioche de Paris, served with a unique beverage called "Nectar of the Islands." The party consisted of fun-filled activity with Mr. Tony Ramsey giving the welcome and invocation. Mark Strom, Gary Hartung, and Dan Bailey performed entertaining skits from jeans commercials and others, such as commercials recruiting for the armed services. The evening was topped off with special music from the group, "Antioch".

None of this would have been possible without the hard work, time, and effort put forth by the Student Council to make the International Spring Party a success.

The Miracle Worker

The Drama Department presented the "Miracle Worker" for three nights in January. The play described the early stages of Helen Keller's (Sandy Cosper) life. It delt with the struggles of Anne Sullivan (Zoya Petakoff) who was trying to reveal to Helen how to communicate with the outside world which she couldn't see or hear. The play ended with Helen's dramatic understanding of the hand signals as an actual word "water".

True Identities Revealed

Miss Joan Ogg had the right idea when she commented, "This is one week you can act as crazy as you want and no one judges you." Spirit Week was the week of Superstar Premieres, Urban Cowboys, "seeing double" on twins' day, tourists, and those ever-confused young-folk who seemed to have their clothes on backwards. The week of spirit and excitement was a great way to lead up to the victorious homecoming game.

"We're On Our Way"

"We're on our Way!" theme echoed through the halls to cheer Herald teams to victory. Cheerleaders and flagsters encouraged spirit in the students each week.

The "spirit stick" added fun to class competitions. The stick was circulated among students throughout the week. The class to end up with it on Friday won. Other competitions included dramatic readings from Gone With the Wind.

Having the pep assemblies moved from "senior square" to the picnic table areas made them more enjoyable for everyone.

Of Change

Homecoming 1980 was a night to be remembered, at least for the five princesses and their escorts. As the procession started off, the beautiful princesses were chauffered around the stadium on five luxurious Trans Ams by each individual car's owner. Each girl elegantly proceeded down the 50 yard line with their escorts to the melody of "Nadia's Theme", as the Tall Flags and Drill Team tunnel saluted. The princesses, supportive of one another, held hands as they anxiously awaited the crowning. The atmosphere was fit for a king (queen?) as the crowd cheered for their favorite princess and held on tight to their balloons which they would release upon the crowning of the new queen.

The peak of excitement broke as last year's queen, Kym Mahoney, crowned Nanci Marquez as the 1980-1981 Homecoming Queen. The crowd let loose and the sky became a collage of brightly colored balloons which soon drifted out of sight . . . but, along with this night, were not to be forgotten.

Poet Laureate
Nancy Porras

Nancy Porras does an excellent job creating poetry. She started writing on her own initiative, and took her first poetry class her freshman year. Nancy loves to write essays and stories. She feels poetry is a faster way of communicating her feelings to the student body. When asked where she gets her ideas she replied, "I pray and ask God to give me the words."

SNOW AND ICE

i'm so tired of making the same mistakes, over and over again.
i want to be like Jesus,
but i keep reveling in my sin.
i've cheapened His grace,
by taking for granted His forgiveness.
It's only when He hurls a few conviction bolts at me
do i look up.
Then i see the rut i'm in, and make some sincere,
but familiar promises.
And remembering He's not impressed with these vows,
i keep them to myself,
doing the best i can.
And i try not to step back into the hole.
But it seems to have a hold on me.
i know! through Christ i have power over sin.
Still, it creeps up on me.
And i sin.
And i confess.
And i sin.
And i confess.
And i sin.
Sometimes i cry.
Basically for selfish reasons.
i'm sick of being so cold-hearted.
Jesus, please transform my heart.
i fear the blood will soon freeze over.

Classes

Freshmen received warnings all summer long about the "awesome" high school years. But when it finally came, they were all alone on their own special campus. Although they were separated from Grovedale by a mile, they were bused over to be a part of it.

Sophomores became the first ones to make the big transition from Maybrook to Grovedale. At first it shocked them to be there with all the "sophisticated" upperclassmen, but they came over as a unified group and their vivid personalities helped them to fit in.

For the first time in two years, the Juniors finally felt like they were in the right class. They had the experience and trial of being the youngest on the Grovedale campus for not only their freshman, but also their sophomore year.

Seniors faced the responsibilities of reaching their long awaited position. They continued to participate in sports, activities and some school work, but began attending college days, planning for graduation, and dreaming about the future.

Four classes — each different — each made up of many individual students. Like the grains of sand on the beach, each one of us played a part in making up the whole student body of Whittier Christian High School.

Working as a unit, the freshmen raised money by selling fruitcake and participating in the school Jog-a-thon. Once a week, the class officers met to plan fund-raising activities and class parties. Through these meetings, the class officers learned to appreciate each other. Each had individual ideas to express and produce, but they still remained a unit.

Being separated from the upper classmen created an atmosphere of independence. They had to make friends with fellow freshmen and make the most of those relationships. Jeanie Stellingwerf, social chairman, stated, "I know many of us are very close and our relationships will continue to grow."

As their Bible teacher, Mr. Frank Mercer, filled them with the excitement of Christ's love, the freshmen did continue to grow. They were full of sensitivity toward each other.

"83, Here We Come!!"

Fund raising was a major activity of the sophomore class council. A pizza sale, fruitcake sale and various other sales contributed to the class treasury. The sophomore council also provided decorations for the Homecoming Reception. The council's most important goal was to create a unity between themselves and the class, so all concerned would have a terrific sophomore year to remember.

The council viewed God as a patient and loving God who was willing to give all the attention and care that they needed.

Luxury in lush tropical gardens, magnificent new high-rise Tower, Top-of-the-Park Lounge. Fun at Olympic-size pool, children's playground, 18 hole 3-par golf course. Convenience of room service, monorail or tram to and from Disneyland, restaurants and shops.

Dear Erma
I just got back from a fantastic evening spent at Disneyland Hotel. That's where our Junior - Senior banquet was held. The mood of the evening really fit the theme which was "Once Upon a Dream." This was, no doubt the high point of my four years at Whittier Christian High School.

Working Together For A Single Purpose!

Through directing their efforts toward raising money the junior class officers were greatly rewarded by the success of the Junior - Senior Banquet. They did things such as selling mums at Homecoming and delicious fruitcake for the Thanksgiving and Christmas Holidays. The junior officers sold carnations on Valentines Day and added spunk to the occasion by providing singing Valentines. Although more for the purpose of spirit, than to raise money, the juniors sold hats and scarves to represent the school they have so much pride in.

The One Big Day!

From the many days of struggle and success, trials and triumphs,
Comes the one we've all been anticipating.
Relief with a capital "G".
And the class of '81 is ready.
We've earned it.
Think of what we've been through!
The Personalities:
Benny Hester at our "first time to roast the Sr's." J.S.
Mr. Mercer's initial four years...
We honored him by making the Sr. rock his favorite look-alike
New mascots, Sonya and Christa.
And Queen Nanci reigned on the Homecoming throne.
The Sites:
Spanish class ole'd in Puerto Rico.
And AMU hula'd in Hawaii.
The Happenings:
4 years of IBM electric typing!
A micro-wave fulfilled Home-Ec's dream.
Ski Club got back on its feet.
Speech-all the way to San Jose for state championships.
Powder Puffers-a long awaited victory.
And football's unforgettable surge to the CIF summit.
The Reminiscences:
Water balloons and school picnics.
Christmas parties squished on the auditorium floor.
Roller skating with the school.
Praise songs in chapel.
Prayers and testimonies.
And the final day!
Crumpled diplomas and soaring caps.
Ever-lasting heart friends.
From the many "things", the class of '81 remains with one big day left.
The day we thought would never come.
And it'll be the best ever.
Because WE ARE THE CLASS OF '81!

Sports

From many . . . one. The best place to observe this was while watching a game of football, basketball, volleyball, soccer, or baseball. You could find it out on the wrestling mat or on a long, upward cross country hill. But no matter where your interest in sports took you, there it was. There were many guys on the football team—each different with their own unique personalities. But once they got out on that field Saturday night, they became like one — a team — all working together for the same purpose . . . to win!

In the same way, yet in a different way, the wrestling team also demonstrated this. There were many people on the team, but when it came time for the match, it was the one individual who had to "pin or keep from being pinned".

But even with the unity behind the individuals, as in cross country, or the individuals making up the unity, as in soccer, each team realized that they needed something more. This was displayed in team verses and prayer times before each game.

The audiences, whether they ranged from 1,500 people at a Homecoming football game to 5 people at a girls' basketball game, all shared in giving support to their Herald athletes. The many people in the stands became unified as they joined the cheerleaders in one loud yell: "Go Big Red!!!" And they did!

Flagsters Promote Spirit!

Being a flagster involved "responsibility, hard work, a lot of dedication, fun, and friendships," stated flagster sponsor Miss Joan Ogg.

Responsibilities included cleaning up after games, painting posters, organizing pep rallies, and keeping the school informed of activities. Each girl had a specific job that she was expected to fulfill.

Because of the organization which they achieved, the flagsters were able to go to every game and support the school with their contagious spirit.

Camping on the beach in Santa Barbara was a highlight of frequent flagster get togethers. The trip gave the girls an opportunity to deepen friendships. Birthday parties were among the fun times also, with each girl being honored on her special day.

Devotions before each game gave the girls strength in one another and in God. They demonstrated a mutual concern for one another through their support, spirit, and good attitudes.

"We're Out There For Him!"

"We're not out there for us! We're out there for Him!" With this attitude, the J.V. cheerleading squad was able to realize that whatever happened they must thank the Lord and know that He worked out His perfect will.

Rousing the crowd with their enthusiastic attitude, the cheerleaders strived to be an example of Jesus. They became a close unit, sharing excitement and frustrations with each other.

Summer camp was fantastic and successful for the squad. Their excitement and enthusiasm won them two red ribbons and a big blue ribbon. They were awarded the spirit stick two out of three times for the most spirited squad.

Praying together and telling each other special needs contributed to their unity and a hug from a prayer partner never hurt anyone. The J.V. squad's year could be summed up in one verse, Colossians 3:23, "And whatever ye do, do it heartily as unto the Lord and not unto men."

Cheerleaders Begin A New Tradition!

Mascots dressed as Heralds began a new tradition at the Varsity home games.Aiding the cheerleaders in promoting spirit, they cheered with the crowd during the game. Christa DeLannoy and Sonya Koopmans made the costumes, with the heads constructed. from papier mache.

Under the leadership of captain Nanci Marquez, the Varsity cheerleaders set high goals for themselves. They wanted: 1) to represent Christ and the school, 2) to create school spirit, 3) to be good examples of Christ to others, 4) to love each other, and from there, love others, and 5) to be cheer "leaders" and not just out there putting on a show.

A great deal goes on behind the scenes of being a cheerleader. It means hard work! The Varsity squad spent many hours after school in preparation each week. Mondays were set aside for game review, and to plan the pep rally for the week. On Tuesday afternoons they painted posters and on Thursdays they practiced cheers for pep rallies and games.

They excelled at camp during the summer, winning the spirit stick and being the only squad to win blue ribbons each night. They tried to promote school spirit by encouraging people to participate and were sometimes discouraged by the lack of enthusiasm shown at the pep rallies. Each week they persisted with new ideas to try to excite the school.

On Wednesdays, they used their class period to have devotions and pray with their special prayer partners. Unity was brought about amongst themselves by just taking the time to listen and share with each other.

Season Of Improvement

The J.V. Football season was marked by an evident improvement over the 1980 season. After struggling through their first three games, they rebounded and won six out of the last seven. This significant turn around was led by head coach Mr. Steve Endemano, Mr. Stan Stellingwerf and Mr. Don Zug. Key players who contributed to this remarkable turn around were quarterback Steve Irwin and running backs Richard States and Andy Reinjohn.

High Hopes For Winning

With high hopes of winning the CIF championship for the second year in a row, the Varsity football team entered the 1980 season with an overall record of 7-4, and though they did not win the championship, they did accomplish one of their goals, which was to enter the play-offs.

They played consistantly throughout the season, seldom losing. In the few times they were defeated, the contest came right down to the wire, once losing to Brethren in the final 10 seconds, and then going into overtime against Cathedral in CIF.

Tom Caffrey's 8th year as head coach brought along many changes. There were several new coaches, including the addition of offensive coordinator Dennis Stangeland. Said Stangeland: "The coaches and players alike were disappointed with the outcome of the season. There was a lot of talent on this year's team, but now we're gonna concentrate our efforts on next year's season."

Eight squad members were selected to the All League team. Honored on the 1st team was junior Phil Grace, and Tony Ramsey, Bob Oeh, and Scott West, all seniors. Freshmen Give 100%!

"We will honor the Lord through play by giving 100%; striving to do our best whether we win or lose.", stated Miss Ruth Sutton, freshman volleyball coach. The frosh team considered God their source of strength as He enabled them to play as a team. They sat and talked, or prayed at least once a week.

The freshman team had practice for two hours each day after school. However, on Tuesdays and Thursdays they played their scheduled games. Being on freshman volleyball involved learning and improving skills, teamwork, and accepting the coach's decisions.

The team ended their season with 8 wins and 2 losses. They went to CIF playoffs.

Ambitious Junior Varsity

After Steve Jacobs had coached his first season of volleyball at Whittier Christian, he proclaimed that the girls were great to work with.

The Junior Varsity's uppermost ambition was to play each game, doing their very best. After the games, each player felt that she had done her best, and was satisfied with her efforts.

The consistency in good sportsmanship was the most outstanding testimony of their Christian attitude.

The Junior Varsity ended their season with 11 wins and 3 losses.

Super Varsity

Forming a Christian attitude on and off the court was the goal of the Varsity Volleyball Team, coached by Mrs. Sandi Searcy. In her words, "We are princesses; calm, cool, confident, but not haughty." This attitude was reflected in praying with rival teams before the game, even if they were not from Christian schools. Playing Varsity Volleyball involved being commited to improving their physical ability. The team practiced for two hours after school. Games were on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Although there was no specific team verse, Mrs. Searcy gave the girls a different Bible verse each week depending on the needs of the team.

After her first year of coaching volleyball, Mrs. Searcy was very pleased with her team. "They learned a lot. It was a good season not only because of their good playing record, but because of the fellowship they had together."

Varsity Volleyball went to CIF, and lost in the first round.

JV Cross Country Sweeps League

Our Junior Varsity Cross Country Team swept the league. Every one of the JV team members made All League: Steve Cain, Ken Canales, Steve Hale, Ken Kondo, Fernando Sauceda, and Sam Zug.

At both the Bell-Jeff Invitational and Moorpark Invitational, the JV took second place above some tough competition. Though there were no other JV teams in our league to compete against, the practice that our Junior Varsity was involved in promises a terrific Varsity team in the next couple of years.

1. Sam Zug works the down hill. 2. Steve Hale, the HULK, blows away his opponent. 3. The team is off to another good start for a victory over Valley. 4. Coach Gary Pate's JV squad includes: Sam Zug, Fernando Sauceda, Ken Kondo, Steve Hale, and Steve Cain. Not shown: Ken Canalas. 5. Ken Kondo leads the pack. 6. Steve Cain strides to the top with ease. 7. Fernando Sauceda pumps up the hill.

Cross Country, More Than Just A Jog!

Although number one varsity runner, Jim Toney, claims their year was one filled with humor and wit, the Cross Country team's strength was proven through their successful statistics. With Jim taking a strong lead, closely followed by Ron Wilch and Greg Settelmayer, the guys remained undefeated throughout the Olympic League season. They took first in the League and placed fifth at CIF pre-lims.

The guys consistently set a fine example always keeping in mind their team verse: Philippians 4:8, which instructs us to focus our thoughts on spiritual things, thus giving purpose for our actions. Coach Gary Pate strongly supported this fact, stating, "This is the hardest working team I've had and am thankful for their true effort."

The League season began with the home course at Penn Park. Although the steep hills were awe inspiring, the Cross Country runners felt secure in their familiarity with the course. The Penn Park course proved extremely threatening to visiting teams.

Because of problems in obtaining parade permits, the Cross Country team had to find a new location for their home course. The guys finished off the season at the grueling Whittier College Cross Country course. Although the team members did not like the change of courses, they continued to display their strength and stamina, as they placed first in League Finals.

1. Cross country runners get ready for a tough race in the league finals. 2. Jim Toney edges into the lead against Baptist. 3. Brad Peters and Joe Saucedo pace it to the top. 4. Coach Gary Pate's impressive undefeated varsity squad: Joe Saucedo, Brad Peters, Danny Madison, Ron Wilch, Greg Settelmayer, Jim Toney, Jim Holtz, James Eli. 5. Greg Settelmayer runs it in for a good time. 6. Jim Toney and Danny Madison: Pals forever. 7. Danny Madison sprints to the finish. 8. Ron Wilch finishes well in a hard race.

But when you mention the girls cross-country team of WCHS, it wouldn't be proper to leave out the name, Diana Driscoll. She had a great year! Besides being a team captain and most valuable player, Diana placed first in League Finals. Julie Minjarez was also a team captain and helped lead the team to victory. Also, Jennifer Simpson took second place in League Finals and Carol Coopy, Cheree Lynch and Michelle Coopy all placed in the top ten. The team verse, Phil 3:4, was an inspiring factor which lead the team on to many victories.

But the girls just didn't achieve success by standing around. They ran for two hours every day with some special times of running on the beach. All together the team had a great year and is looking forward to continued success in the years to come.

Sock It To 'Em!

Learning experiences adequately describe the J.V. Soccer season as Coach Herron once stated "You learn from mistakes only when it hurts!" And hurt it did! If it wasn't the loss of a game it was the loss of a fellow player for some reason or other. Although the season was not glorious, the team learned not to quit and to do their best in all circumstances.

New additions to the J.V. program, including a superb new coach as well as ex-varsity players, contributed to the team's motivation and desire to play the game along with having fun and learning the skills. Coach Herron believed that one shouldn't be a quitter, nor a spectator, but a contributer and this became the main goal that each player strove to attain.

Some of the team's top players were Anthony Gehl- offensive player, and Doug Norman- defensive player as well as others. The team effort was good and everybody became better as the season progressed.

Coach Herron is a strong believer in the statement: "Luck is the residue of design"; which to him means that if a team practices and has a purpose and the people are in their right position even though the play itself may not come off, something else may come of it and be of value to the entire team's benefit. Although this did not always prove true he still feels that if a play is carried through to the letter it will more than likely be successful in some way or another.

Steady Struggle

Frustration spelled a prominent factor in the production of the Varsity Soccer team. Unity became a steady struggle with people dropping off the team and new J.V. players constantly coming up. Also, the lack of abundant winning and excessive tieing played a large part in the building of frustration.

At the beginning of the season, the team as a whole sat down and decided upon some team goals.

Along with these goals, each team member decided upon a few personal goals concerning how he, as a soccer player, could benefit the team as a whole. Thus each team member was prompted by his personal goals to keep striving and never quit.

Greg Settelmayer was the only player with the team since its beginning four years ago, and his quality playing added immensely to the production of the team.

1. Steve Hale: La Fro shows good form. 2. Doug Gardner leaves his opponent in the dust. 3. Ken Ames prepares for a scoring corner kick. 4. The team: Back Row: Coach Schrock, Ralph Love, Dan Cooper, Kevin Nordine, Kevin Wirth, Greg Settelmayer, Jeff Morgan, Doug Gardner, Joe Salazar, Tony Radoumis, Coach Genberg. Front Row: Bill Collier, Alan Bliss, Ken Ames, Jim Toney, Ken Lopez, Randy Yard, Steve Hale, Jaime Barrios, Randy Freeman. 5. Coach Schrock gives his team a pep talk at half time. 6. Varsity stat girls: Lynda Lehmann, Karen Ramirez, Debbie Lehmann. 7. Bucket Makin'

With their hard work and positive attitudes, the freshmen basketball team strived to win the Olympic League title, in which they finished third. The team's main goal was to glorify God through their efforts on the court. Col. 3:17 inspired them to do this. Outstanding players were Dan Elliot - leading scorer, Jay Lopez - leading the team in assists and steals, and Tom Gabriel - leading rebounder. Not only were these players outstanding, but each individual working as a team helped to make the finishing record 14 wins and 7 losses.

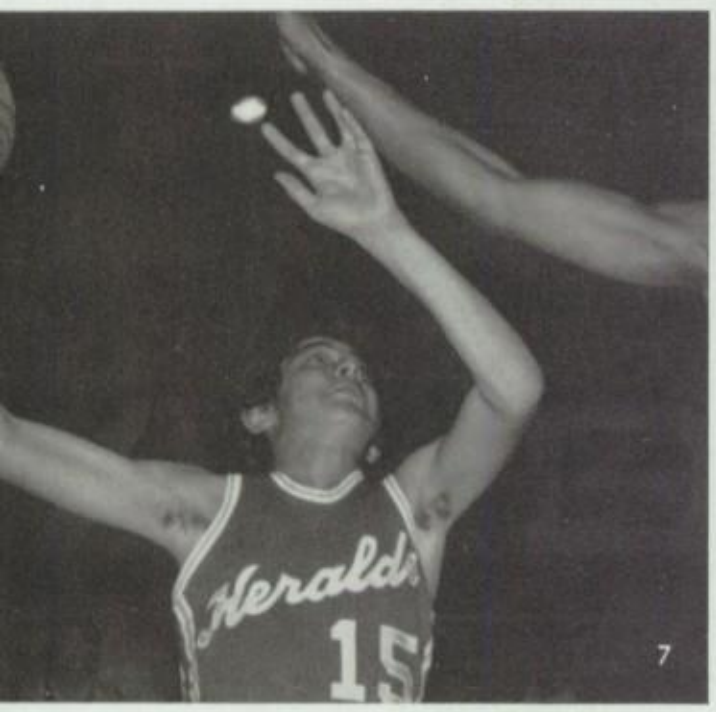
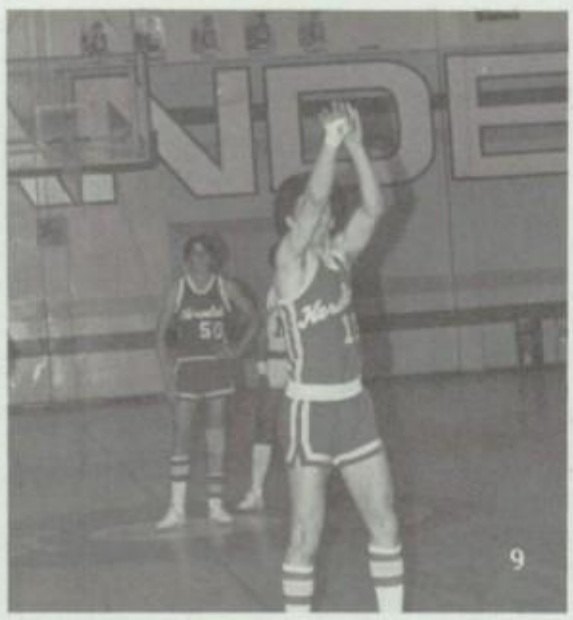
In his 4th season of coaching, Phil Underwood led his team to a winning season, with an overall record of 11-10.

Early in the season, they won the Valley Tournament consolation championship, and were the only team with two members, Bill Dauber and Tom Waller, to make the all-tournament team. These young men, along with Matt Gorey and Andy Lessin, made outstanding contributions as starters, with Tim Corsi and Mark Redden coming in to spark them on. Rod Cowan, James Gabriel, Jim Holtz, Ken Kondo, and Tom Whitby were very influential in improving team skills and morale.

"These young men are good basketball players and fine human beings. It was gratifying to see these young men consistently put forth their best efforts in victory and defeat. It was encouraging to see us improve and become more aggressive. I'm convinced some of our JV players have made and may make more significant contibutions to the WCHS basketball program if they work hard and believe in themselves and the team concept."

—Coach Underwood





Champions

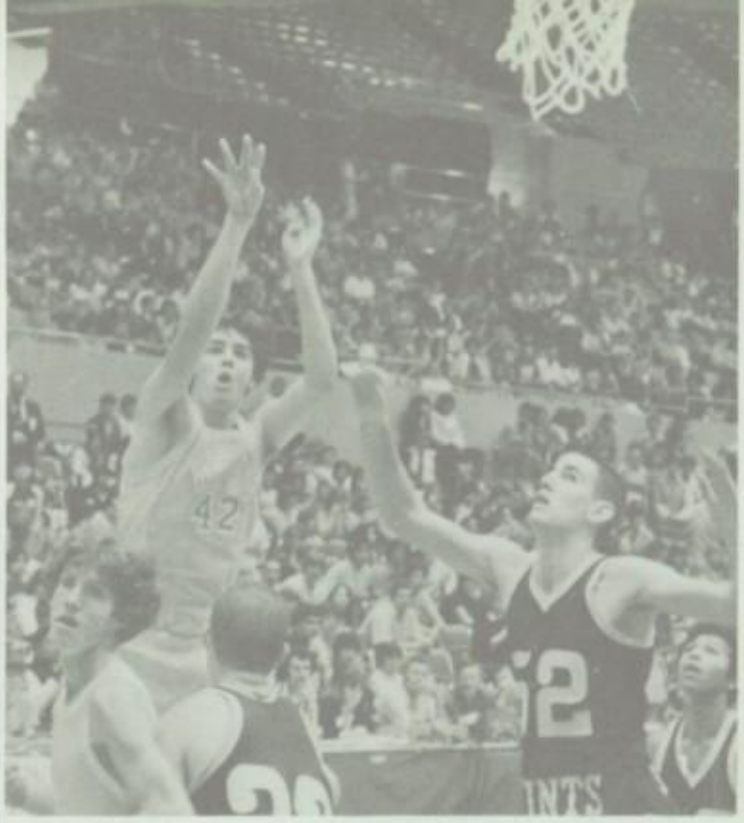
The 1981 Olympic League Champion Heralds had more than just a successful season. This team was unselfish, industrious, and had a great desire to excel as individuals and as a team. Inspired by Joshua 1:8, they not only reached their goal of qualifying for the CIF playoffs, but also went farther than any team in the school's history by playing in the CIF Final game at the LA Sports Arena.

By compiling a final record of 23-4, and winning 12 of 14 league games, many school records were broken along the way. Robert ''Magic'' Aviles had two with Most Assists in a single game and season, Dennis Briley had the Best Free Throw percentage in a single season - 505 total points.

As a team, they combined to break five school records including Highest Points per Game Average, Longest Winning Streak of 12 games, Highest Field Goal Percentage, Highest Winning Percentage, and Most Wins During a Regular Season.

These outstanding efforts were honored by the coaches of the League by selecting Senior captain Mike Farris and Dan Madison to the 2nd Team All-League team. 1st team All-League choices were Juniors Robert Aviles, Dennis Briley, and John Stiver. Stiver was also named Olympic League Most Valuable Player, and was the only member to make the 1st team ALL-CIF team.

In an interview with Coach Cuccia, head coach of this excellent team, he said, "I would like to thank the Pep Band, cheerleaders, drill team, tall flags and the student body for their support. I also want to express my love and appreciation to the 1980-81 Varsity Basketball team for making this season such a special year." Congratulations to the Varsity team for such an outstanding and successful season!



1. The high scorer for the final CIF playoff game, John Stiver, demonstrates great skill. 2. John Stiver tips it to a Herald. 3. The team congratulates each other for a good game. 4. One of the highlights of the Jr. Varsity Basketball team was beating John Glenn H.S. twice. In both games, the scores were within two points. As a team, their goal was to build fundamental skills and to achieve mental toughness. The team's overall target was to put the previous goals into a team situation and to use the skills to better their play as a team. Outstanding players on the team were honored at the girls' basketball awards banquet.

Tammi Straite: Most Valuable Player. She was a consistant player and the team's leader in rebounds and assists.

Sharlene Page: Most Inspirational. On and off the court she encouraged her team.

Toni Roybal: Most Improved. She led the team in free throw percentage.

Learning As A Team

The girls' Varsity Basketball team had many young players and they worked hard on learning to work together as a team. The team goal was derived from Philippians 2:2, "Make my joy complete by being of the same mind, maintaining the same love united in spirit, intent on one purpose." The team's goal was actually two goals; the first was to get the team playing together as a whole, the second was to be intent on one purpose which was three-fold: to play as a team, to play their best and above all to play for God knowing that He would be satisfied that they gave their best for each game.

One of the highlights of the season was when they beat L.A. Lutheran by two points. They had several players who contributed in different areas. Kim Norman and Sharon Burleson were the two guards, and they played tough defense all season. Judith Balogh was the leading scorer and Danielle Boyd was the team leader in rebounds and assists.

Players were honored at the awards banquet:

Sharon Burleson - Most Valuable

Stephanie Hurst - Most Inspiritional

Sue Enderson - Most Improved

Danielle Boyd placed second team all league.

Whittier Holds Their Own

Coach Barchie was a great new asset to the WCHS wrestling program. He previously attended Biola College where he was one of the team's top wrestlers. This is where he gained his much needed experience, which helped to counter-balance the inexperience of this year's wrestling team.

Of the seventeen different varsity wrestlers, only two had more than one year of wrestling experience. Naturally, these two wrestlers obtained the most success throughout the year. Senior Steve Soule was the Big Bear Tournament Champion and placed second in the Arrowhead League. Steve Arroyo placed second in the Agoura 5-way Tournament, and first in the Big Bear Tournament. He was also the Arrowhead League 126-pound champion and was voted the Most Outstanding Wrestler in the Arrowhead League. Other wrestlers who had fine seasons were league place winners Ted Methot and Ken Canales and Big Bear Tournament Champion Bill Chamber.

1. Scott Stangeland is victorious. 2. Team members applaud Steve's efforts. 3. Steve Arroyo gets two more points. 4. Coach George Barchie shouts encouragement. 5. Steve Soule pins his opponent. 6. Fellow wrestlers look on with hope.

J.V. Baseball Strikes Out Opponents!

The 1981 J.V. Baseball season proved to be a profitable experience for both players and coaches. With stunning victories over quality teams such as LA Baptist, the team finished among the top in the league standings.

Jeff Hannah and Rick Inman anchored the Heralds defensively while Vance Magee and Andy Reinjohn powered Coach Domene's squad to impressive victories.

Domene and Coach Genberg stressed fundamentals throughout the season while also emphasizing aggressiveness on the field. These qualities were admirably demonstrated by Rod Pope, Mark Redden, and Randy Freeman.

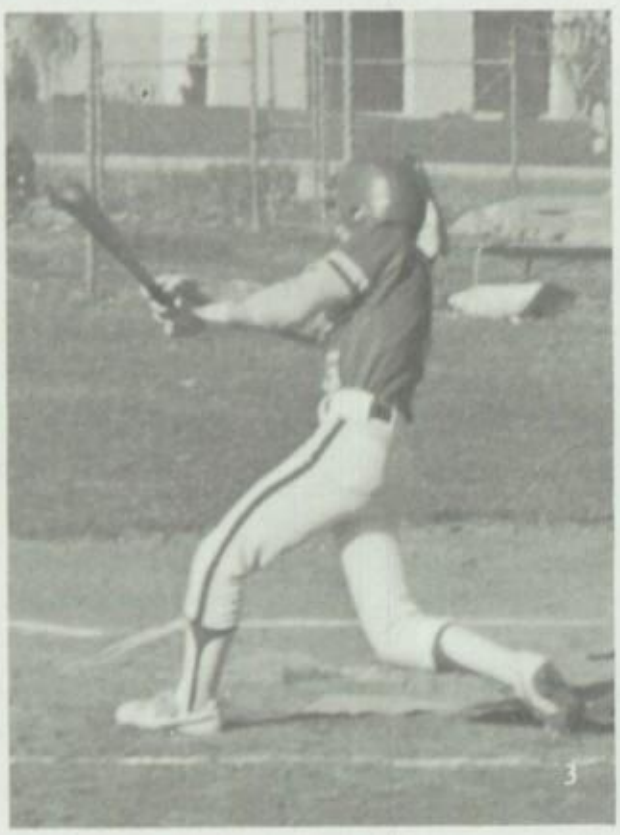
The efforts given by the young J.V. squad were evident through the hard work and sharpening of skills to better improve on the gifts the Lord has given them.

1. 1981 J.V. Baseball Team: Back Row: Mark Redden, Randy Freeman, Todd Molter, Matt Gorey, Andy Reinjohn, Dave Rabin, Rick Inman, Keith Anderson, Jeff Hannah, Front Row: Guy Carter, Vance McGee, Dan Sanchez, Rod Pope, Mike Fuentes, Rodger Ferris, Jim Brown, (not pictured). 2. Stat girls: Tami Slick and Tami Roybal. 3. Rod Pope swings hard to get on base. 4. Mark Redden wonders why he has to stretch out before the game.



Varsity Swings Into Action

In his third year of coaching, Don Steward said, "Our main goal this season is to give the game, each individual player's time, and their God-given ability over to God." The team verse, which they strove to abide by, was Exodus 20:7: "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain."

Close to the beginning of the season, the team rated second in C.I.F., with an undefeated record.

One of the highlights of the season was in the comeback victory over Valley Christian in the bottom of the seventh inning.

Some of the outstanding players were outfielders Keith Straite and Jack Pilaria, and infielders Joe Beattie, Phil Grace, Nathan Zug, Dennis Briley, and Dave Jones.

Homerun Hit

The junior varsity softball team did very well this season. Terri Koger, the starting pitcher broke her arm, but she supported her team by coaching first base.

The team verse was Colossians 3:17 "And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus giving thanks to God, and the Father by Him." The team's goal was to play their best for God and to be happy with their performance; knowing that they had done their very best. Cindy Cliff, in her first year of coaching said that the girls worked well together and made up a fine team.

1. 1980-81 Girls Junior Varsity Softball Team: Christina Corpis, Carol Silva, Terri Koger, Sandy Gilson, Ruth Lawhead, Sherri Morrell, Coach Cindy Cliff, Lori Wilson, Lillian Valencia, Kathy Bihr, Dottie Engstrom, Toni Roybal, Therese Barker, Leslie Franklin. 2. The team looks on with interest. 3. It's a homerun!

Smashing Softball Season

With the entire infield back from last year, the girl's softball team had a bright outlook on the 1980-81 season.

Returning lead batter Sheri Swanner and starting pitcher Debbie Herd were an encouragement to the team.

Miss Ruth Sutton, in her fourth year of coaching, said that she had a good team that worked well together and that she enjoyed them. They set some high goals: to win the prize for which God has called them in Christ Jesus.

1. Safe or out? 2. Girls Varsity Softball Team: Coach Ruth Sutton, Danielle Boyd, Sheri Swanner, Sonya Koopmans, Lori Barber, Karen States, Tammie Wolford, Coach Melvin Burns, Julie Hedrick, Tammy Straite, Christa deLannoy, Pam Wright, Carrie Wirth. 3. Troy McConnell concentrates before his race. 7. Greg Herd "herds" the hurdles.

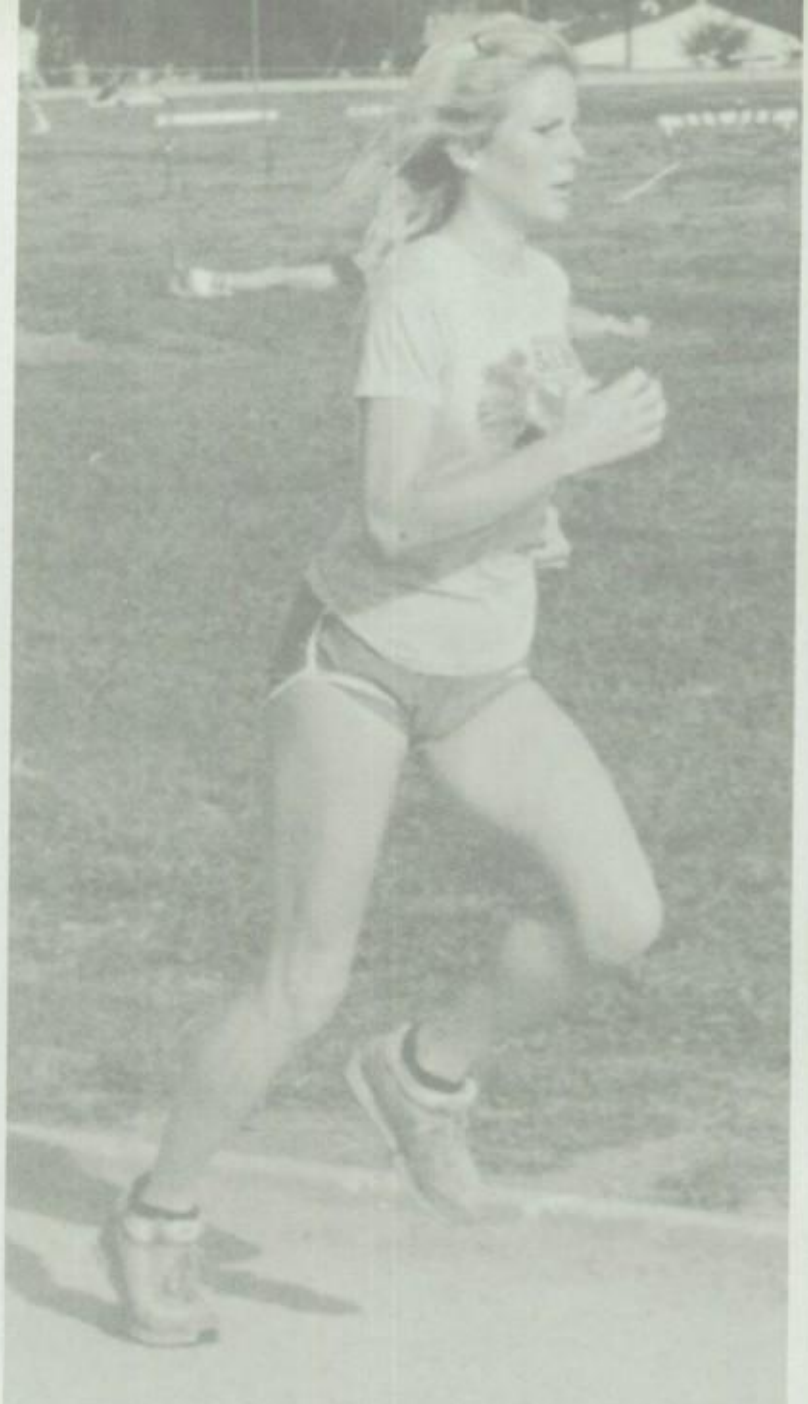
The Junior Varsity and Varsity track team both had an active and competitive year. They met against schools such as Brethren High, Western, L.A. Baptist, Valley Christian, and an invitational meet at Carpenteria. Some of the guys involved were Ron Wilch soaring around the track for the long distance races, Curtis Fritz, Rich States, Danny Ortiz, Mike Duarte, and Rusty Coffelt sprinting the short distance races, and hurdling, and the field eventers such as Andy Smith doing the triple jump, Greg Herd jumping the high jump, Mike Duarte stretching the mark on the long jump, Javier Sanchez heaving the shot put and Ralph Gideon flying over the pole vault.

The team placed high over the schools in their league. Mr. Gary Pate coached and encouraged the boy's long distance runners to improve their endurance and times. Mr. Steve Endemano coached the short distance runners and field eventers to give it their best shot in whatever they were doing.

Track Takes Over

The Girl's Varsity Track Team had a rough beginning in the 1981 track season due to a lot of rain that kept them from practicing the way they would have liked to. The first non-league meet was cancelled due to rain. The second, a league meet, was also cancelled for the same reason, but was rescheduled at a later date.

Miss Nadene Ruhe, in her fourth year of coaching was very optimistic. She was very proud when the girl's dropped their times due to their hard work. The team verse was Colossians 3:23-24. "And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily as unto the Lord and not unto men. Knowing that of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ."



1. Diana Driscoll - "I must admit, I'd rather be playing tennis." 2. And Miss Ruhe doesn't think we work hard?!! 3. Distance Runners; Back Row: Miss Ruhe, Beth Elliott, Julie Minjarez, Cheree Lynch, Laura Cummings, Dana Botka. Front Row: Jennifer Simpson, Thea Aldama, Sandy Wark, Diana Driscoll, Cindy Simpson, Cheryl Kienel. 4. 1. The Cooper family loyally supports the Soccer program. 2. Tony Ramsey explains the fantastic results of such "wonder medicine" for your body. 3. A full house is a common sight at a fantastic basketball game. 4. Coaches, such as Coach Herron, play a vital part in a team's sideline support. 5. At League Finals, Mrs. Coopy and the Toneys discuss the rigid Cross Country course that the runners will encounter. 6. Ron Wilch discusses with his parents the competition of the race he has just completed.

Advertising

Supportive parents and WC friends played a big part in the success of our school. Who else would buy four mums at the Homecoming football game because they knew we needed to get rid of them? Who else would stay up until one in the morning to help us type our book reviews or come to every football game and cross country meet, even if it was in Yucca Valley or Griffith Park? Who else would pledge a dollar per lap in the Jog-a-thon when they knew we could run at least 30 laps? And who else would purchase a space in the Annual?!

Selling ads became important to each Annual Staff member. We all realize that ads are extremely necessary to the finances of producing a quality yearbook that students would use to recall memories for years to come. We should remember the good times — the football games and the Saudie Hawkins, the choir performances and the parades. We should remember that though there were MANY of us, we were ONE body in Christ. That's why selling ads meant so much to us. We wanted our yearbook to help us remember. And that's why we say "thank you" to all these wonderful people who, in showing that they cared about our school, also showed that they cared for us.

To Our Son Greg Settelmayer,

It has been a joy to see you mature into a fine young man. You have matured physically, mentally, and spiritually. We hope you will always carry God in your heart, and strive to do your best.

We are proud to be your parents and we love you.

Dad and Mom

Dear Linda,

When this picture was taken you were a very sweet little girl and you loved to talk on the telephone. The only change is you're not little anymore.

As we look back it doesn't seem like you have been with us for 18 years. Time really flies when you are having fun. During these years we have had good times and some tearful times. Through it all you have never complained. We appreciate you and your life in the Lord. We love you very much and we praise God for the many blessings you have brought into our home. We pray that as the years go by you will continue to grow in your knowledge and love for our wonderful Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

May God richly bless you throughout all the days of your life.

Your Brother and Sister in Christ
Dad and Mom,
(The Mills)

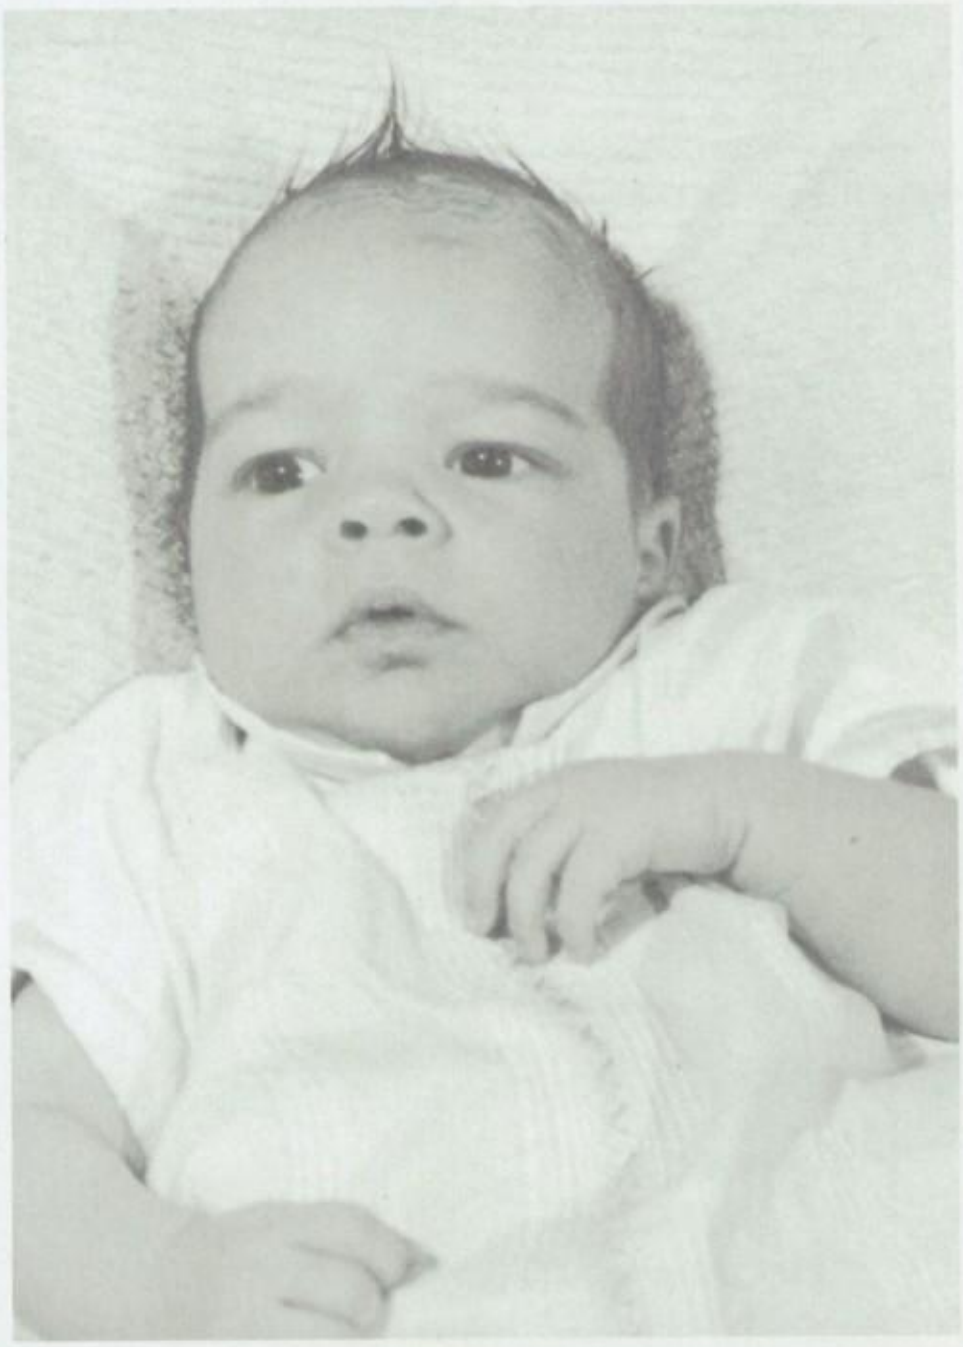
Kevin,

Best wishes and congratulations on your graduation. And may the road ahead be one of health, happiness and great accomplishment. "And trust in the Lord, and do good; so you will dwell in the land, and enjoy security." Psalm 37:3

Grandma & Granddaddy Fennell

School is but a stepping stone for what you plan to do. Keep God – and Him alone, and His will within your view. You've studied much, your plans and your dreams have shown that special touch. Just remember God controls all man's little schemes. Fond memories go with you and you are not alone. I ask God's help to see you thru each task that you are shown.

Mother



Thanks for being the kind of son that makes his Dad proud to say, "That's my Son!" God bless you always! Dad

Jeremiah 10:23

Dear Michael, Because of our deep desire to have a family, the day you arrived was one of the happiest days of our lives. Little did we know then that our "angel" from above would be so active and mischievious! Even today, there is seldom a dull moment when you are home!

But we want you to know that with God's help and guidance, you have caused us to be very proud parents, God has blessed us so very much.

Michael, the best advice we can give you for starting this new era of your life comes right from God's word.

"My son, never forget the things I've taught you. If you want a long and satisfying life, closely follow my instructions. Never forget to be truthful and kind. Hold these virtues tightly. Write them deep within your heart. If you want favor with both God and man, and a reputation for good judgement and common sense, then trust the Lord completely; don't ever trust yourself. In everything you do, put God first, and he will direct you and crown your efforts with success." Prov. 3:1-6, LB

We love you Michael, and you will always be very special to us.

To Our Tina,

How precious the years have been since God brought you into our home. Adoption is God's special way of giving children. You have been a sweet joy. Watching you mature in the Lord has been a privilege to share.

Your gift of "listening" will be used to His glory as you love and care for those around you.

The past was sad but you have enabled God to use it for strength and growth in your life. Through the rough times God has given you the ability to "sing to Him a new song," as Psalm 33:3 reminds us.

The future is unknown, but with God as your solid rock, it will be fruitful. We want you to remember three things: do God's Will, settle for His first best in all things and know how very much we love you.

We are proud with much love,

Mom, Dad, Nick and Joshua

Sheri,

You are a beautiful gift from God to our Family. Thank you for sharing your, tears, laughter, excitement, heartaches, victories, and all that you are with us. It has been such a blessing watching you grow in each aspect of your life. We pray for your continued sensitivity to the Lord; we know he will use you to share His love and wisdom with those He brings into your life. We thank Him for the good foundation you have received at WCHS, and are excited for you as you graduate.

We love you,
Dad, Mom, Scott, and Dan

Dear Marianne,

Space does not allow all the things we wish to say: From the very beginning you were something special to us. Not only because you were first born but through you God was able to teach us valuable lessons we would never otherwise have been able to learn. Always remember, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him and He will direct your path," Proverbs 3: 5-6. God alone knows how, but we've done it, and for what lies ahead, always rely on these verses.

Mom and Dad
(Husman's)

Our little Nanci,

What a joy and blessing you are to our lives and to those who know you. May this, your favorite prayer, continue to be the guide of your life:
Lord, make me an instrument of your peace,
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.
Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved as to love;
for it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Love you always,
Mom and Dad
(The Marquez's)

Dear Annette,

Yes, you have always liked birthdays, and you have had many birthdays since this picture was taken. The years have rolled by all too quickly, and you are a senior in high school.

Now, you are working thru your senior year the hard way - studying by correspondence course - because you wanted to return to that beautiful far away place, where you were born and which you love, Cameroon, Africa.

Whenever you take this book from the shelf and reminisce on days gone by, we hope you will happily recall the fun days and your many good friends.

Your future looks bright Annette, as you will enter Westmont College, Santa Barbara, in the fall. There you will find a beautiful campus, interesting people, and plenty of activities. We wish you success and much happiness.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Mitch,
There's an old saying, "The Third Time's The Charm." It must be true! You're my third child and you're a charmer! Actually I made all my mistakes raising the first two. Guess that's why you turned out PERFECT! All kidding aside, I praise the Lord for the way you have turned your life over to the Lord and have grown in Him. I'm proud to be called

Your Muddo

It is not your looks or intelligence,
That makes me so proud,
But how you've grown and understood life up 'til now.

May I say how much you mean and hope you'll always know.

That you're more than just a little brother Mommy brought me Home.

Now we have grown,
Our lives pulled apart.
Yet distance cannot kill
The desire of my heart.
May you seek
your niche,
and make your start.
Keeping in mind
my love and respect, will never depart.

Be strong and true
in all you say,
but most importantly

Continue in
"THE WAY."

His Love
steadfast,
His grace
the same,
will be as your life exemplifies
His home.

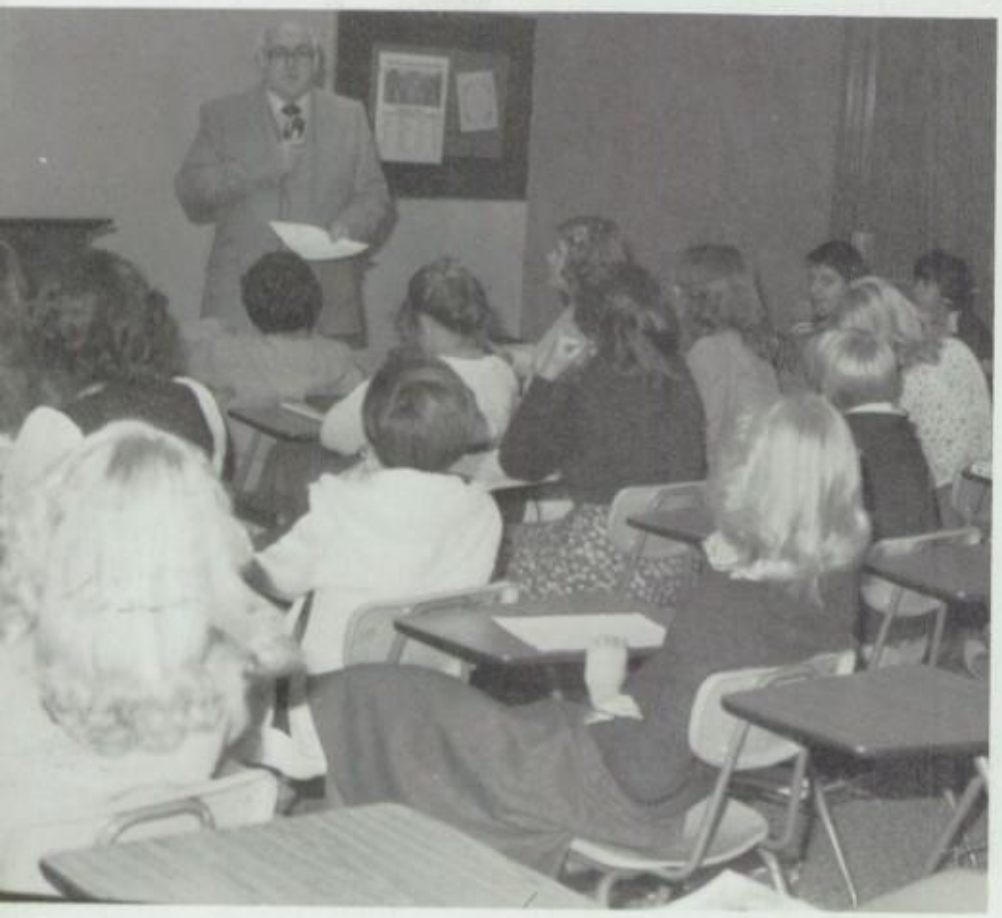
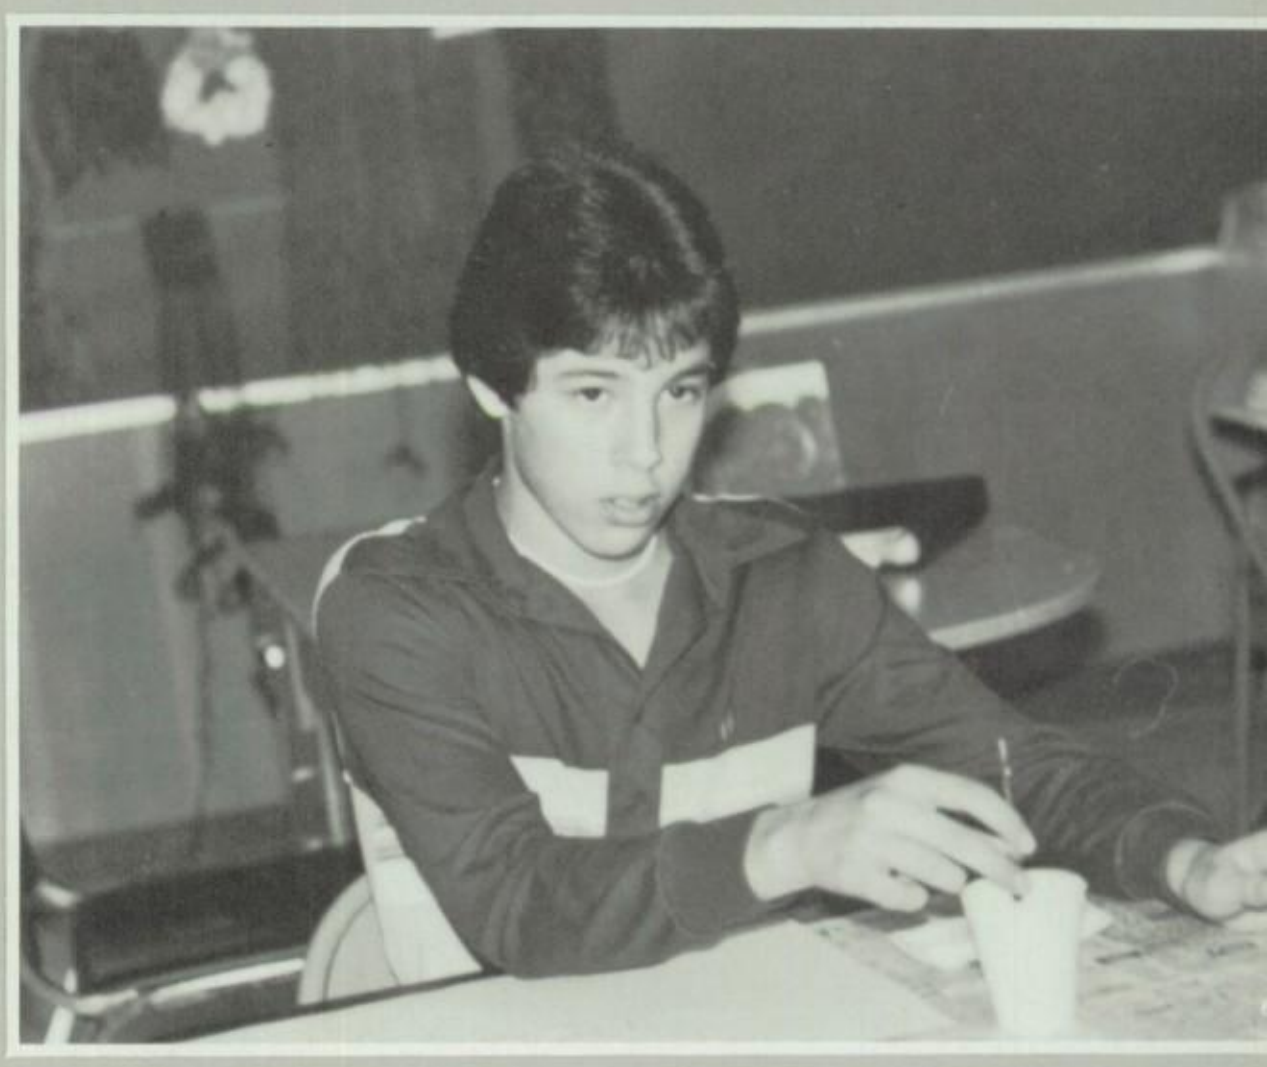
Farewell Mr. Mercer



As Mr. Mercer would say, "A good student leaves after four years!" Mr. Mercer is leaving Whittier Christian High School, after being principal for four years, to become the pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Because of his love for the students and for his Lord, Mr. Mercer has been an important asset to the school. His wife has also been helpful as receptionist for the last two years.

Mr. Mercer came to the school in 1977 under a set of difficult circumstances. Following the sudden death of Mr. Wolgemuth, the board asked Mr. Mercer to fill in as principal. Mr. Mercer played a major role in bringing the school from near bankruptcy to a debt-free position. Mr. Mercer was instrumental in keeping the Jog-a-thon going as a major fundraiser. He encouraged a positive outlook on life by adding the Richer Life course to the curriculum. At athletic events Mr. Mercer could be spotted as an avid fan. He also strongly supported the band and choirs, constantly bragging about the "fine young folks" at Whittier Christian.

Because of all he has done for us, we would like to say Thank you! "Farewell Reverend Frank Mercer, and God bless you."



Another year at WCHS is over
I can see the tide rolling out as I leave the parking lot, but I know that soon it will be rolling in . . . once again.

Editor's Note:

I'd like to take this space to express my appreciation to all the neat people who have helped out in the production of this book. Thanks a bunch to Mr. Ramsey, Greg Settelmayer, Mike Blea, Kathy Bihr, Mr. Moothart, Danielsons' Photography, Fernando (Fergie) Sauceda, Ron Kelly, Miss Ogg, Marci Smith, and Mr. Boyd for contributing photographs or photographic talents as a valuable aid to me and my staff.

Also, I'd like to thank Mr. Barcroft for putting up with us using the darkroom and sometimes leaving it not quite so clean. Well, maybe sometimes cleaner. Thanks Mr. Barcroft, we really do appreciate it.

The cover is unique, but we felt it was an appropriate label for a book of "memories", after all where else do you tack up all your misc. memoirs than on a bulletin board. So our purpose was to try and capture a collection of the memories of 1980-1981 on the cover as well as inside the book. Also, the cover is a picture of bringing our many activities together into one year.

The theme is general: "From Many . . . One", with an overall purpose of getting more faces in the book since it's the many students that make up the one great W.C., and that's what counts. Since you want your friends and you in the book I hope that this book will capture exactly that as well as many fond memories. Consider it a "Book for You"!
